41 Reported Still Missing

Death Toll Mounts To 16 After Collapse Of Bridge

POINT PLEASANT, W.Va. (AP) — Working in a light rain, a water-borne crane probing the Ohio River's depths latched on to a crumpled car early today and brought up three more bodies in the grim search for victims of Friday's bridge collapse.

They brought to 16 the number of known dead. There were 41 persons reported missing.

The car was one of scores of vehicles that tumbled like playtoys off the bridge when the suspension span collapsed into the murky river.

The bodies of two adults and a child pried out of the car's twisted metal remains were taken to a temporary morgue in a state armory.

They were not immediately identified.

Sitting on a barge in the river, the crane also pulled up one huge chunk of the bridge superstructure this morning. It was placed on the barge. It was believed that superstructure pieces were being hauled up in an effort to reach vehicles trapped under the debris.

The 1,500-foot-wide section of the river between Ohio and West Virginia yielded eight bodies from four cars and a truck when the derricks pulled them out Sunday. The other five bodies were recovered Friday, a few hours after the suspension bridge collapsed under the weight of rush hour and Christmas shoppers' traffic.

Forecast of more than one inch of rain for the Point Pleasant area brought with it the fear that the river's level would rise and increase its current. This would seriously hamper divers in their efforts to reach cars crushed under the bridge's superstructure.

Of the 13 dead, only one remained unidentified. That was the body of a man taken from the cab of a trailer-truck yanked from the river Sunday afternoon.

The big 40-year-old bridge, a major link between the two states, crumpled into the Ohio River 80 feet below just after 5 p.m. Friday. The center span of the bridge disappeared, leaving only the approach ramps on both sides and concrete piers jutting above the river's surface.

Max Ray, a commercial deep sea diver from New Orleans, said that "you've got to worry about metal falling on you."

Ray spent several hours in the river's murky depths Sunday and said "it's real hairy and dangerous down there. You can't see your hand on the face plate of your mask. It's so dark, pitch black."

The tangled mass of the bridge's superstructure, lying atop the cars and trucks in 40 feet of water "is so shaky I could move the beams by hand. I dropped through the mess of steel and it started to slide," Ray said.

Another problem stemming from the disaster was that river traffic along the Ohio was choked and backed up for miles. Col. William W. Falck of the Army engineers estimated that 60,000 tons of cargo was stalled because the river was closed above and below Point Pleasant.

House, Senate Committees Meet Tuesday

Redistricting Plan Ready For Study, Rhodes Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes announced today he has a congressional redistricting plan ready for consideration by a joint session of the Senate and House Committees Tuesday.

He expressed belief that the new plan "mets all the requirements of law."

The U.S. Supreme Court recently knocked out Ohio's 24-member Congressional district arrangement because of differences in population in the districts.

Rep. Charles E. Fry, R - 9 Springfield, Chairman of the House State Government Committee, and Sen. Robin T. Turner, R-14 Marion, chairman of the Senate Elections - Commerce - Labor Committee, will open joint hearings at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday in the statehouse.

Fry said William VanTilburg of Ashland, special counsel for Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, will be the leadoff witness at the hearing.

Saxbe, who drafted the recently approved legislative apportionment plan for Ohio, said others who assisted VanTilburg have been made available to assist the administration.

Rhodes, in a message to the legislature, slated for return Jan. 15, said his aides and those assigned by Saxbe drew up a plan in an attempt to conform with court decisions.

He noted that any new Congressional districting plan must pass scrutiny of a special three - judge federal court in Cleveland in which the 1964 plan was challenged.

"That court," Rhodes said, "is under legal duty to measure the (new) plan against any other plan proposed or known to the court that provides a lesser deviation from the ratio of representation.

"The General Assembly must be prepared to enact a congressional redistricting statute promptly."

"The redistricting must be one that can survive court challenge and be ready for use in congressional elections to be held in 1968."

U.S. Planes Again Raid North Viet's Heartland

Three Jets Lost, MIGs Down Two

Crewmen On Two Of Craft Missing; One Flier Rescued

SAIGON (AP) — American planes continued raids on North Vietnam's heartland for the fifth straight day today, and the U.S. Command reported the loss of three jets Sunday—two of them downed by Communist MIG interceptors.

The U.S. Command did not immediatelly reveal details of the raids today, but Tass, the Soviet news agency, said American planes made a "massive raid" on Hanoi's northeastern district.

American spokesmen reported one MIG probably downed by U.S. fighters in the several swirling air battles over Hanoi Sunday. The American casualties were an Air Force F105 Thunderchief and an F4 Phantom brought down by a MIG21 and a MIG17. The three crew members aboard the two American planes were missing.

The third American plane downed, another Phantom, was hit by ground fire over North Vietnam's southern panhandle. One of its two crewmen was killed and one was rescued.

Including Sunday's casualties and a Phantom shot down Saturday by a MIG21, U.S. records list 36 American planes and 99 MIGs shot down in aerial combat so far in the war. A total of 765 U.S. warplanes have been reported lost over the North.

A freakish break in the monsoon weather—which began last Thursday—has permitted the heavy raids on key North Vietnamese targets after a one-month lull which permitted the Communists to rebuild shattered facilities.

North Vietnam's carefully hoarded MIGs apparetly were out in greater numbers Sunday than in the previous days of the renewed assault, when only four to six of the Red interceptors would dart in and out of American formations.

In the five days of renewed aerial combat, the MIG pilots have downed three U.S. jets, while the Americans claimed only one "probable."

U.S. pilots logged 145 missions today, the largest number reported during the current weather break. The priority targets were the MIG airfields at Kep and Phuc Yen, the vital bridge complex between Hanoi and the rail lines emanating from Hanoi and Haiphong.

Returning pilots reported widespread damage but detailed reports were withheld pending the study of reconnaissance photos.

Terry Barcus Is Handling Adjustment Well

'I'm Going Places,' Says Veteran Here Paralyzed By Sniper Bullet

By HARRY STEWART

How does one adjust to the fact that the partial paralysis caused by a sniper's bullet probably will be permanent? What is life like for a young man faced with this problem?

For 21-year-old Terry Barcus of Beechwood the physical disability is not as difficult to cope with as the attitude of many well-meaning persons.

Terry, who arrived home from the war in Vietnam less than a week before Christmas last year, says, "I want to do all the things a young man of my age does. I want to go places, visit friends, do what they do and see the same things."

"But, a lot of people are shocked to see me in various places," he says, admitting this puzzles and troubles him to some extent. "What do these people expect? Do they want me to stay home and do nothing?"

TERRY, SON of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Barcus of 315 Center St., is paralyzed from his chest down. He was serving as a radio telephone operator for a unit on a "Search and Destroy" mission when wounded Sept. 18, 1966.

The bullet entered the top of his right shoulder, angled downard, ripped through both lungs and came out the other side. His nervous system was damaged, causing the partial paralysis.

Terry, who was a private first class, was whisked back to his base for surgery. Later he was flown to the United States and taken to Walter Reed Hospital at Washington. He then was transferred to the Cleveland Veterans Administration Hospital, but was permitted to go home for Christmas 1966.

Terry returned to the hospital for examinations, but was released last February.

TERRY BARCUS OF BEECHWOOD looks over some of the many cards he has received from well-wishers since he suffered partial paralysis from a sniper's bullet while serving with U.S. forces in Vienam.

He experiences some difficulty in some aspects of his life in a wheelchair, but for most part he looks to these as problems which can be solved.

Terry says he likes to "loaf around the house during the day and get out and go at night." He has purchased himself a car which is fitted with special controls and makes good use of it.

—:—

"I BELONG to the American Legion and visit the post. Many do not understand and question me as to why I am there. They see me in other places with the same puzzlement on their part."

But for the most part, Terry says people are understanding, and he quickly points out he has been treated very kindly by many indivi-

Two Killed, 20 Injured By Tornado

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — A tornado killed two persons and injured at least 20 others as violent weather struck a large area of north Alabama today.

The tornado hopscotched around Madison and Morgan counties, touching down in at least five communities, but it missed the Redstone Arsenal missile complex at Huntsville.

Killed south of Huntsville was 60-year-old Clarence Ellison.

Another death was reported at Valhermoso Springs in Morgan County, but it was not determined immediately whether the person died in the tornado or drowned in heavy flooding that followed torrential rains. The victim was not identified immediately.

The twister touched down at Valhermoso Springs and at Summerville in Morgan County before moving into Madison County southeast of Huntsville, several miles from the Redstone complex.

The heavy rains were complicating the task of reaching and helping the tornado victims. A number of the injured was believed in critical condition.

The weather bureau had estimated 30 to 40 persons were hurt.

Many parts of north Alabama were under water, with almost five inches of rain drenching Huntsville during the night.

Some low-lying areas were flooded but none of the principal roads were closed

May Break Up Australian Coalition

Premier Holt's Drowning Threatens Political Crisis

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — The disappearance of Prime Minister Harold E. Holt while swimming in the surf threatens Australia with political crisis and possibly the break up of the coalition that has governed the country since 1949.

There was almost no hope that Holt could have survived the riptides that swallowed him up Sunday while he swam off Portsea, 37 miles south of Melbourne.

Bad weather forced suspension of the massive sea and air search today. The tides off Portsea have claimed three other swimmers in the last 10 years without yielding their bodies.

Deputy Prime Minister John McEwen, the leader of the Country party, took over the government helm until Holt's liberal party, the larger member of the coalition, elects a new party leader and prime minister.

Federal Treasurer William McMahon, the deputy party leader, was in line to succeed Holt. But observers in Canberra believed his election would drive the Country party out of the coalition because he and McEwen disagree on a number of key issues.

Defense Minister Allen Fairhall and Foreign Minister Paul Hasluck were also considered likely candidates for the Liberal leadership.

Governor-General Lord Casey was expected to announce the presumption of Holt's death Tuesday, although the prime minister's press secretary, Tony Eggleton, told newsmen today: "We are all hanging onto a shred of hope that Mr. Holt is alive."

Plans Pushed For Sealing Of Clay Mine

Preparations for closing the abandoned clay mine where two youths were lost for 30 hours last week continued today, with state officials scheduled to ask permission from the property owner to seal the mine entrances.

The Ohio Division of Mines has indicated the mine openings will be either blasted shut or sealed with brick or concrete block in an effort to prevent any further excursions into the mine along the Wellsville - East Liverpool Rd.

Weather Helps Make 'Blue Monday' Bluer

Despite the prevailing Christmas spirit, today could be termed only a "Blue Monday" in a weather sense, with drizzles not helping the situation.

The forecast calls for cloudy and mild tonight with intermittent rain and considerable fog. Tonight's low will be in the lower 40s. The rain is due to end early Tuesday. It will be cloudy in the afternoon, with little change in temperature.

Temperatures will average slightly above normal through Saturday, with highs in the 30s and 40s and lows in the 20s and 30s. The mild weather will turn colder toward the weekend.

Pack Of Dogs Attacks, Kills 2 Small Boys

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP) — A pack of German shepherd dogs attacked and killed two small boys Sunday while their father fought futilely to save them by clubbing the animals with a rake.

The attack, near a creek behind the victims' home in nearby Madison Heights, included two neighborhood dogs the boys apparently had played with before.

The victims were Gene Anthony Goodman, 4, and Kenneth Goodman, 3, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Goodman of Madison Heights.

Goodman and his wife are in Lynchburg General Hospital where they are being treated for shock.

Amherst County Sheriff-elect Mahlon H. Bryant said Goodman, sobbing, told him that when he reached the snarling pack he beat at the frenzied animals with a rake, his shoes and anything else he could find to turn them away from his blooded sons.

Two of the dogs were impounded by local authorities. A third could not be caught and was shot to death. Police were looking for a fourth dog but said there may have been only three in the attack.

'Silver Bridge' Warning

It may be some time before the cause of the collapse of the "Silver Bridge" at Point Pleasant will be determined.

Somehow the factors of weight, stress and strain overcame the structural ability of the 40-year-old span to support itself and its load, and it tumbled into the Ohio River, claiming possibly 60 men, women and children.

Assurances have followed this disaster that other bridges up and down the Ohio are inspected periodically, are properly maintained and are not — based on inspection reports— subject to similar failure.

This is not enough.

There are a number of chilling facts related to the tragedy at Point Pleasant which justifiably cause concern.

The "Silver Bridge" was constructed in 1928, and many major spans across the Ohio—including the Chester and Newell bridges — were erected years before.

Design and construction techniques and standards of 1928 are different from those of today, and certainly the traffic loads are much greater than 40 years ago — and earlier.

Dr. Thomas Stelson, head of the Carnegie-Mellon University Department of Civil Engineering, over the weekend said overload could have caused the collapse of the "Silver Bridge," referring to the reports of traffic almost bumper to bumper and at least four tractor - trailer trucks at one end.

Dr. Stelson also said old age could have been at fault, explaining that the I-bar of a suspension span is anchored usually in concrete, and where the bar is anchored, there is often a corrosion problem. He added, "A defect in the structure might not be evident before a bridge breaks. The corrosion condition can exist under paint."

Highway authorities and engineers have been given a new dimension of responsibility as a result of the "Silver Bridge" disaster.

Whether the cause of Friday's collapse will indicate a need for more frequent and more intensive inspections, new load standards, better maintenance methods, revised engineering procedures, it is clear greater guarantees of safety are warranted.

In particular, the narrow, 70-year-old Chester Bridge, even if "safe" at present, is inadequate to its task and should be replaced eventually. It is a key transportation link in the highway net of the Tri-State District and vital to the continuing development of north Hancock County, Columbiana County and southern Beaver County, but primarily, it must be means of crossing the Ohio River without hazard.

Atomic Anniversary

Thirty years ago atomic power was a theory; 20 years ago, a terrifying actuality; 10 years ago it became commercially practical at Shippingport; today it is among the common place aspects of U.S. life.

Electricity from the world's first private nuclear power facility surged into district household circuits Dec. 18, 1957, to become a historical landmark in the Atomic Age.

In the succeeding 10 years, nuclear power plants have been built across the world, drawing upon the Shippingport pilot operation for trained personnel, scientific data and — perhaps most of all — a steadfast belief in the future role of atomic energy to aid human beings, not destroy them.

Shippingport is the symbol of the peaceful purposes of the atom which had become a horror-filled threat from the skies over Japan.

Soon a new 800,000 kilowatt nuclear facility will rise beside the pioneer plant at Shippingport, another mark of hope and confidence in man's ability to harness this limitless power which has been given him, and to use it for good, not evil.

Lausche's Aerial Fantasy

We wish Ohio Sen. Lausche had thought twice and skipped a remark to Transportation Secretary Alan S. Boyd about turning the Ravenna Arsenal into a Cleveland-Akron-Youngstown airport.

Remarks like this dropped by public figures like Lausche have a way of turning into issues. They start out as shots in the dark and wind up as public debates.

The senator has in mind the need of Cleveland's East Side for an airport it can get to more handily than Cleveland Hopkins, which is on the West Side in the vicinity of Berea.

But how do Akron and Youngstown get into his dream? Akron already has a fine airport that it shares with Canton, and Youngstown has an airport of its own, with another not too far away, at Pittsburgh.

The Ravenna Arsenal eventually should be turned back to private ownership and developed into taxpaying property in connection with the urbanization of Northeastern Ohio. There is enough of it there for a sizable city with an airport of its own.

But to talk about it as a regional airport for Cleveland, Akron and Youngstown is unrealistic and misleading. If Clevelanders on the East Side want to get airborne in a hurry, they would do better to zip down to Akron-Canton than to wend their roundabout way to the Ravenna Arsenal.

An airport there would be a repitition of the John Foster Dulles International Airport, which is so far from Washington, D.C., that people prefer to catch planes in a hurry go to Baltimore, Md.

NATO Updates Defense Strategy

The new defense strategy adopted by defense ministers of 14 North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations is a saner approach to the problem that in the policy it replaces.

Ministers regard the old doctrine of massive retaliation for any Soviet aggression against any NATO country outdated and unworkable.

The new plan, "flexible response," outlines an initial response to aggression with conventional weapons followed by use of small battlefield nuclear weapons, if needed. If the first two steps fail, the final phase of the strategy is use of strategic nuclear missiles directed at the enemy's homeland.

If war is going to dog the steps of man and he remains fearful of nuclear military battles, then he has to set up his defenses accordingly.

NATO defense chiefs tailored their mutual defense policy to the most likely offensive tactics.

It seems a wise move.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

We would like to thank the interested adults and boys and girls who showed up at Glenmoor School Thursday evening for a program explaining Civil Air Patrol.

We would especially like to thank the many members of Warren Squadron 304 who traveled that distance with a busy schedule and on a school night to help us. Among the senior members we were proud to have three ministers plus other adult leaders, and also our group commander who traveled from Ravenna. As Civil Air Patrol is a completely non-profit organization and all time and effort from top to bottom is donated time, it has been a refreshing sight for us working with the Warren unit to see so many giving freely of their selves.

To those interested who could not attend our meeting — CAP is a Congress - chartered (one of only two such organizations) Auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force. We wear the same uniform only with different insignias. We consist of service members who must organize before we can have this program for boys and girls ages 13 to 18. We have a planned curriculum by the Air Force which is fundamentally air minded, while at the same time teaching the cadets moral leadership. The boys work toward a possible pilot's license and the girls toward being an airline stewardess.

We would like to hear from anyone in our tri-state area interested in joining or helping in anyway.

'Relax, I'm Just Going To Remove Some Imperfections

Man Wanted!

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON

U.S. Ambassador Charles Bohlen is coming home from France, and a desperate search is now under way to find a suitable replacement.

Most Americans would like to send over Bonnie and Clyde, but President Johnson still hasn't made up his mind.

Art Buchwald

"He should be a man," a high State Department official told me the other day, "who understands De Gaulle, who will be welcomed by the French Foreign Ministry and who has access to the Elysee Palace at all times."

"That sounds like Premier Kosygin."

"No," said the official. "He has to be an American."

"I knew it wouldn't be easy," I said.

"Our candidate must also understand the problems of gold."

"What about Arthur Goldberg?"

"Are you going to be serious, or are you going to mess around?"

"I'm sorry."

"HE ALSO HAS to be able to present Great Britain's case for admittance into the Common Market."

"Too bad Twiggy isn't a man," I said.

"Not only that, but the new American ambassador must be able to explain our commitment in Vietnam in terms that De Gaulle will understand.

"Then you've go to go with Dr. Spock."

"I don't think he's under consideration," the State Department official huffed.

"Why don't you send over a general?" I suggested.

"De Gaulle doesn't seem to have much use for American generals. It reminds him too much of what the American Army did for him in World War II."

"Well, how about a businessman?"

"No, that reminds him too much of what the United States did to build up France after World War II."

"Then send a doctor," I pleaded.

"That wouldn't work either. De Gaulle would think we were concerned about his health, which, of course, we're not."

"I don't envy your job. What about Secretary McNamara?"

"It's too late. You see, President Johnson didn't tell him about the World Bank job first, so it would be hard not to tell him about the ambassadorship now."

"There's always Bobby Kennedy."

"I'VE HEARD the President say many times he'd like to send Bobby somewhere, but it was never Paris."

"We probably don't have diplomatic relations with the place the President wants to send him," I said.

"I'm afraid not," the State Department official replied.

"Well, there's got to be somebody in this country who would be acceptable to us and President De Gaulle. What about a clergyman?"

"We've considered it, but De Gaulle doesn't like to be reminded there's another deity."

"This is ridiculous," I said. "Do you realize if you don't appoint an American ambassador to France we'll have no communication with De Gaulle at all?"

"The idea gets more appealing as each day goes by."

History Or Myth?

By Don Oakley

It has been proved time and time again that much of what we call myth is based on actual history.

One famous example is that of Heinrich Schliemann, the amateur archeologist who discovered the site of the ancient city of Troy by using Homer's "Illiad" as a guide.

But how much of what we believe to be history is actualy myth — things that never happened?

For that matter, how much of history is what historian Daniel J. Boorstin calls "pseudo-events" — things that actually happened but were essentially phony?

A stage-managed "confrontation" between demonstrators and the police, with the alerted press looking on, falls in the pseudo-event category.

The questions are provoked by three recent items in the news.

One is the announcement by New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art that its famous bronze statue of a horse, once beieved to be a superb example of Greek sculpture dating from about 400 B.C., is actually a forgery made in this century.

The horse is still a superb example of art, but it is no longer "real" in the sense we thought it was.

The second is a story from France about documents which have come to light that indicate that Joan of Arc was never burned at the stake. Moreover, she was not a peasant girl but a noblewoman, who married one Robert des Armoises and lived happily ever after.

According to the last living descendant of the family, the stake-burning legend "was a publicity stunt, one of the earliest in France's history" and was devised to serve political ends.

Finally, in London the other day, thousands of dollars worth of fake first editions of famous books, printed by a book dealer named Thomas Wise in the late 19th century, were auctioned off to eager buyers at Sotheby's.

Not only have the forgeries attained historical value in their own right, but a counterfeit of one of Thomas' fakes actually sold for more than the "genuine" fake.

Al of which brings to mind the brilliant idea of an Englishman about 100 years ago and what has to be the greatest forgery of all.

Seeking to reconcile the then-ranging controversy between evolutionists and anti-evolutionists, zoologist Philip Gosse claimed that both were right.

The earth was indeed created in six days in 4004 B.C., as the fundamentalists believed. The newly discovered geological and paleontological evidence that pointed to a far older age was quite correct.

How could that be?

Because God had created the world with a built-in history.

The marks left by glaciers, the fossils of extinct types of animals and men, all the evidence that the world and its life forms had gone through a long process of change and evolution was quite real — and quite fake.

Just as Adam was created with a navel but never had a mother, so the earth was created with a past that never happened.

So what's the moral? Perhaps, that "history" at any given moment is pretty much the creation of the present, and that men will go on discovering it and undiscovering it, making it and remaking it in the same groping way they always have.

It is, after all, the only history we've got.

Instinct

Instinct, not intelligence, guides the behavior of birds.

The seeming intelligence of many birds is quite different from that of human beings, the National Geographic Society says. Compared to mammals, birds have little learning ability, though there are exceptions.

Parrots, sparrows and titmice show a reasonable amount of brainpower. Crows and ravens can be regarded as the geniuses of the bird world.

Tales of crows' cleverness are numerous. One tame crow learned to rouse his master and even call his name. When hungry, the crow would go to the refrigerator.

Scarecrows rarely frighten crows. For many, the appearance of a scarecrow is simply a tipoff that a free lunch is available.

Terror

It is a chilling reminder of the state of our society when a President of the United States is compelled to visit a great American city under a veil of secrecy.

That is what I witnessed Dec. 7 from my office window, which overlooks St. Patrick's Cathedral at a distance of about 150 feet. The occasion was to pay respect to the late Cardinal Spellman.

We had no knowledge that Mr. Johnson was coming. No one knew except police officials and the President's own party. It had been announced that Vice President Humphrey would represent the President.

The President's aircraft landed at Floyd Bennett Field, and a helicopter carried the chief executive to Central Park. There, the chief inspector of police made provision for official limousines — and a fire truck — to greet the visitor.

Nine minutes later the President arrived at the cathedral. When he left, he slipped out a rear door into the cardinal's residence and out onto Madison ave, where his car, Secret Service men and dozens of police were waiting. Within seconds, he was on his way to the helicopter in Central Park and the return to Washington.

The Vice President arrived at La Guardia Field. His car took a roundabout route to the cathedral. A radio car accompanying him was ordered to "stop giving your location and maintain radio silence."

I know of nothing like this performance since Abraham Lincoln was smuggled through Baltimore on his way to his own inauguration in 1861. Then it was the imminence of civil war. Now the reason is lawlessness in New York.

Maintenance of order against mob rule occupies a considerable part of the police force. On Dec. 7, 200 to 300 uniformed men were protecting St. Patrick's cathedral and the ecclesiastical visitors attending the funeral. All these, plus contingents, to protect the United Nations, were diverted from protecting citizens in the streets, in stores and homes. This is what 8 million people — minus the crooks — have lived with for many months.

Crime of all sorts has been rising in frightful proportions.

Figures released by the FBI for the first nine months of 1967 (273 days) show 544 murder and nonnegligent manslaughter; 1,462 forcible rape; 25,053 robbery; 20,713 aggravated assault; 107,302 burglary, breaking or entering; 39,839 auto theft.

A major crime is committed in New York every three minutes. Someone is slain every 12¼ hours. A woman is raped every 4½ hours. A robbery (usually armed) takes place every 16 minutes. Property is broken into, entered or burgled every 3½ minutes. A car is stolen every 10 minutes.

The "fun city" is really a city living under the shadow of fear.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Over 500 attended the Chester Drum and Bugle Corps production of "Maids and Minstrels" at City Hall. Harry Henkin was the director.

Shirley Adamson, a senior, was appointed editor of East Palestine High School's annual, the Ephanian.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The Harmonettes of East Liverpool High School presented a musical program when Naomi Circle of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Albert J. Neiser of Pennsylvania Ave.

James DuBois was guest pianist during the meeting of the Colonial Club at the home of Mrs. Robert T. Hall of Park Blvd.

TEN YEARS AGO — The Atomic Energy Commission and the Duquesne Light Co. of Pittsburgh announced that power was generated on a test basis for the first time at Shippingport.

Burglars battered open a safe in the office of the Ceramic Theater and escaped with $1,750.

The merger of Salineville, Yellow Creek and Wayne School districts into a single district was authorized by the Columbiana County Board of Education.

Asia, the world's largest continent, has the highest mountains, the deepest depressions, the greatest peninsulas, and some of the coldest and hottest regions in the world. It also has some of the driest and some of the wettest places on earth, and some of the most densely as well as the most sparsely populated areas in the world.

The nickname "wildcatter" for an oil driller was coined by pioneers of the American oil industry. In remote areas of Pennsylvania, wildcats fought at night over food scraps left by daytime drilling crews.

The eagle, national bird of the United States, long has been used as an emblem of courage and power. It symbolized the Sumerian city of Lagash in the third millenium before Christ.

'Silver Bridge' Warning

It may be some time before the cause of the collapse of the "Silver Bridge" at Point Pleasant will be determined.

Somehow the factors of weight, stress and strain overcame the structural ability of the 40-year-old span to support itself and its load, and it tumbled into the Ohio River, claiming possibly 60 men, women and children.

Assurances have followed this disaster that other bridges up and down the Ohio are inspected periodically, are properly maintained and are not — based on inspection reports— subject to similar failure.

This is not enough.

There are a number of chilling facts related to the tragedy at Point Pleasant which justifiably cause concern.

The "Silver Bridge" was constructed in 1928, and many major spans across the Ohio—including the Chester and Newell bridges — were erected years before.

Design and construction techniques and standards of 1928 are different from those of today, and certainly the traffic loads are much greater than 40 years ago — and earlier.

Dr. Thomas Stelson, head of the Carnegie-Mellon University Department of Civil Engineering, over the weekend said overload could have caused the collapse of the "Silver Bridge," referring to the reports of traffic almost bumper to bumper and at least four tractor - trailer trucks at one end.

Dr. Stelson also said old age could have been at fault, explaining that the I-bar of a suspension span is anchored usually in concrete, and where the bar is anchored, there is often a corrosion problem. He added, "A defect in the structure might not be evident before a bridge breaks. The corrosion condition can exist under paint."

Highway authorities and engineers have been given a new dimension of responsibility as a result of the "Silver Bridge" disaster.

Whether the cause of Friday's collapse will indicate a need for more frequent and more intensive inspections, new load standards, better maintenance methods, revised engineering procedures, it is clear greater guarantees of safety are warranted.

In particular, the narrow, 70-year-old Chester Bridge, even if "safe" at present, is inadequate to its task and should be replaced eventually. It is a key transportation link in the highway net of the Tri-State District and vital to the continuing development of north Hancock County, Columbiana County and southern Beaver County, but primarily, it must be means of crossing the Ohio River without hazard.

This is what 8 million people — minus the crooks — have lived with for many months.

Crime of all sorts has been rising in frightful proportions.

Figures released by the FBI for the first nine months of 1967 (273 days) show 544 murder and nonnegligent manslaughter; 1,462 forcible rape; 25,053 robbery; 20,713 aggravated assault; 107,302 burglary, breaking or entering; 39,839 auto theft.

A major crime is committed in New York every three minutes. Someone is slain every 12¼ hours. A woman is raped every 4½ hours. A robbery (usually armed) takes place every 16 minutes. Property is broken into, entered or burgled every 3½ minutes. A car is stolen every 10 minutes.

The "fun city" is really a city living under the shadow of fear.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Over 500 attended the Chester Drum and Bugle Corps production of "Maids and Minstrels" at City Hall. Harry Henkin was the director.

Shirley Adamson, a senior, was appointed editor of East Palestine High School's annual, the Ephanian.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The Harmonettes of East Liverpool High School presented a musical program when Naomi Circle of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Albert J. Neiser of Pennsylvania Ave.

James DuBois was guest pianist during the meeting of the Colonial Club at the home of Mrs. Robert T. Hall of Park Blvd.

TEN YEARS AGO — The Atomic Energy Commission and the Duquesne Light Co. of Pittsburgh announced that power was generated on a test basis for the first time at Shippingport.

Burglars battered open a safe in the office of the Ceramic Theater and escaped with $1,750.

The merger of Salineville, Yellow Creek and Wayne School districts into a single district was authorized by the Columbiana County Board of Education.

This 'n That

Asia, the world's largest continent, has the highest mountains, the deepest depressions, the greatest peninsulas, and some of the coldest and hottest regions in the world. It also has some of the driest and some of the wettest places on earth, and some of the most densely as well as the most sparsely populated areas in the world.

The nickname "wildcatter" for an oil driller was coined by pioneers of the American oil industry. In remote areas of Pennsylvania, wildcats fought at night over food scraps left by daytime drilling crews.

The 10 most popular given names for boys are: John, William, Robert, James, David, Charles, Michael, Richard, George and Joseph. The 10 top names for girls are: Mary, Elizabeth, Helen, Susan, Margaret, Ruth, Anne, Carol, Barbara and Linda.

The eagle, national bird of the United States, long has been used as an emblem of courage and power. It symbolized the Sumerian city of Lagash in the third millenium before Christ.

15 Hospitalized

Crashes Injure 25 On Weekend

Twenty - five area residents were injured in five mishaps investigated over the weekend by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Nine were hospitalized at City Hospital and six at Salem City Hospital.

A Lisbon girl was in "guarded" condition at the Salem hospital as a result of a head-on collision at a hillcrest of a township road near Route 164 in the Salineville area Sunday afternoon.

Patricia Lavelle, 18, of 115 S. Lincoln Ave., Lisbon, suffered a head injury when the car in which she was a passenger rammed another on Township Rd. 754 about two miles west of Route 164 at 3:30 p.m.

She was in a car operated by James Wesley Blackburn, 18, of Rose Run Rd., Salineville, officers said.

THE PATROL said Charles Alvin Dobbins, 47, of Canton was headed north in a 1960 sedan, went left of center and was struck by the southbound 1956 coach of Blackburn which was also left of center.

Kathleen Ramsey, 50, of Canton, a passenger in Dobbins' auto, was in "fair" condition at the Salem hospital, where both drivers and three other passengers of Dobbins — Paul Ramsey, 16; Susan Ramsey and Stanley Croston, 16, all of Canton — were treated and released. Both drivers were cited for driving left of center.

A 10-year-old Elkton girl was in "fair" condition at the Salem hospital with injuries received in a collision on Route 7 at the intersection with Route 14 last night at 7:15 in which five others were hurt.

Sherry Carter was in a car driven by Edward L. Carter, 32, of Elkton which collided with another auto operated by Ethel Josephine Beaman, 44, of Youngstown in the middle of the intersection.

Officers said the woman, headed west in a 1963 sedan, failed to halt for the traffic signal, and was struck by Carter's southbound 1961 coach.

Mrs. Beaman was in "fair" condition today at the Salem hospital. Joyce Beaman, 16, of Youngstown was transferred to Youngstown Southside Hospital. Agnes Smick, 36, of Youngstown, another passenger in her car, was in "fair" condition at the Salem hospital. Carter and Janet Beaman, 16, of Youngstown were treated at the Salem Hospital and released. The woman was cited for failure to obey the traffic signal.

TWO REMAINED in City Hospital today as a result of a collision on Campground Rd. Saturday night at 8:10.

Cars operated by Thurman Thomas Sisco, 40, of Sherwood Ave. and John Hazelet, 23, of Campground Rd. rammed almost head-on about a mile north of County Rd. 427.

The patrol said Hazelet, headed north in a 1967 coach, went left of center and hit the southbound 1960 station wagon driven by Sisco.

Hazelet was in "fair" condition today with a possible skull fracture, and Ruby Sisco, wife of the other driver, was in "fair" condition with bruises of the forehead and knees.

Treated and released were Lorette Wooley, 56, of 1606 Church St., a passenger in Sisco's car who suffered bruises of the ribs; Sisco who received cuts and abrasions of the face and chest, and Richard Owens, 21, of 317 Elm St., a passenger in his car, who suffered abrasions of the nose.

SIX WERE injured in a head-on collision on Route 45 about a mile northwest of Wellsville Saturday night at 11:20.

The Patrol said Ada Ellen Blackburn, 17, was headed east in a 1961 station wagon, went off the right side of the highway, came back onto the pavement and went left of center, colliding head - on with a westbound 1960 sedan driven by Lawrence Edwin Roseberry, 18, of Wellsville RD 1.

The girl was in "satisfactory" condition today with cuts of the chin and bruises of the chest.

In her car were Joyce Bishop, 19, of Irondale, in "fairly good" condition with cuts of the face; Richard Hallhill, 17, of Hammondsville RD, in "fair" condition with a possible skull fracture; Joseph Call, 14, of 1911 Nevada St., Wellsville, detained overnight with a head injury, and Roger Blackburn, 14, of Hammondsville RD, treated for facial abrasions and released.

Roseberry was treated for a cut of the chin and released. Brenda K. Williams, 17, of 407 14th St., Wellsville, a passenger in his car, was in "fairly good" condition with abrasions of the chin and a possible jaw fracture.

Thomas W. Skidmore, 23, of Weirton was in "fair" condition today at City Hospital where he was taken after his truck ran over some signpost pipes along Route 45 about 1½ miles north of Wellsville.

Officers said he pulled his 1961 GMC truck off the highway into a private drive. Although the investigation indicated he had no series injuries, he was admitted to the hospital for a possible skull fracture and possible internal injuries.

Friends Push Britain's Bid For Market

BRUSSELS (AP) — Britain's friends in the European Common Market launched a two-day effort today to open negotiations on Britain's membership application. President Charles de Gaulle was expected to balk them again.

Foreign ministers or their representatives from all the member countries—West Germany, Italy, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg—assembled for the meeting of the Common Market Council. Britain was not invited.

Five of the six members want to start negotiations with Britain, Ireland, Norway and Denmark, and the sooner the better. Only France is opposed. But De Gaulle has insisted on keeping a veto for such matters, and the others have failed to budge him.

The five say they want a clear answer by Tuesday from the French on whether negotiations can start so that everyone can see who is responsible.

The bustard of Europe and Africa, which weighs as much as 33 pounds, is the largest flying bird in the world.

Pennsylvania House OKs $150 Million

Senate GOP Not Planning Rush On Tax 'Package'

HARRISBURG (AP) — Majority Senate Republicans plan no change in their timetable for the House-approved $150 million tax package despite a protest from a Democratic House member.

The GOP schedule still calls for a final Senate vote either Tuesday or Wednesday.

On Saturday, Rep. Susie Monroe, D-Philadelphia, charged that she did not consent to her absentee vote Friday night for the bill to raise the sales tax temporarily from 5 to 6 per cent.

Mrs. Monroe said she would demand that her vote be changed from yes to no.

If she is successful, it could upset the legislative tax timetable since the $65.6 million sales tax bill cleared the GOP-controlled House, 102-96, with the exact number needed to pass a bill.

It, and seven other tax proposals are on the Senate calendar.

However, formidable parliamentary barriers stand in her way. Veteran Capitol Hill observers including some experts on parliamentary procedure cast serious doubt on Mrs. Monroe's chances.

Today's agenda called for Senate Republicans and Democrats to hold separate caucuses on the tax package.

"I have high hopes we will be able to vote on the measures and pass them Tuesday," said President Pro Tempore Robert D. Fleming.

Majority leader Stanley Stroup stated over the weekend, "I have the optimistic attitude that we'll be able to get them through either Tuesday or Wednesday."

When asked about Reps. Monroe's allegation, Fleming replied, "As far as we are concerned, the bill has been certified as passed by the House. Unless the House should take steps to change that status, we will operate on the assumption that the bill has been officially passed by that body."

Minority Leader Ernest P. Kline, when asked for comment on the tax package, said, "I can't tell until I have discussed the situation with our members. I am not happy about the extension of the sales tax."

Also unhappy about the sales tax measure is the State AFL-CIO. The powerful labor group has promised to battle the measure.

On another tax front, bank spokesmen are expressing to Senators their distaste for the House-approved bill to raise the tax on bank shares by 25 per cent.

Mrs. Monroe was vigorous in her protest concerning her vote on the sales tax.

"Somebody has pulled a trick and I'm going to trick them right back. I am from a poor district and I never, under any circumstances, would have voted in favor of a sales tax," she said.

Mrs. Monroe, who has been ill, was not in her seat. Her vote was recorded as yes.

Several Capitol Hill experts expressed serious doubt about Mrs. Monroe's chances of getting her vote reversed. The knowledgeable sources, who requested anonymity, gave these reasons:

— The tax bills are no longer in the jurisdiction of the House.

— Mrs. Monroe or a representative in her behalf would have to offer a resolution asking that the sales tax bill be returned. The entire House would have to vote on this resolution and, the experts say, the House would probably vote it down.

— Should the House approve the recall resolution, the entire Senate would have to vote on the measure. These experts predict that the Senate would vote against such a resolution.

—Once a bill passes the legislature, the courts traditionally do not question the legislative mechanics of how the bill passed.

Mrs. Monroe said Saturday she would wire House Speaker Kenneth B. Lee, R-Sullivan, demanding the reversal of the vote cast for her.

"We can consider the vote by which the bill passed if we still have the bill. But, once it has left the body of the House, it is out of control of the House," Lee explained. "The Senate now has it and the Senate would have to agreed to a recall."

If the sales tax passes, Pennsylvania would have the highest sales tax in the country.

But defenders of the tax are quick to point out that this state does not tax clothing or groceries as do many of the other states.

The sales tax is scheduled to expire July 1, 1969.

However, veteran legislators and political observers alike can't recall when a broad-based tax has ever been permitted to expire in this state.

The other tax measures cover utility gross receipts, capital stocks, inheritances, liquor and restaurant meals.

In October, the legislature approved $126 million worth of increased taxes on cigarettes and corporate net incomes.

If the current tax package passes, it would permit the three state-related universities — Penn State, Pitt and Temple — to receive their entire $104 million in appropriations for the fiscal year.

In addition, the other state-aided universities and hospitals are to receive 95 per cent of their allocations.

The House, meanwhile, is expected to act this week on labor bills to increase the minimum wage from $1 to $1.60 an hour over four years and to increase maximum weekly workmen's compensation benefits from $45 to $60 a week.

Once taxes are out of the way, the legislature plans to quit for the year.

Dogs Told After All

VIENNA (AP) — Two watchdogs guarding the premises of a trucking firm were unable to distinguish between good and bad guys. They let a thief sneak away with a bunch of stolen tires but attacked a policeman who came to investigate the thieft.

Police figured the thief was someone well known to the dogs and soon arrested an ex-employe.

duals he has never met and does not know.

As for the problems, Terry strives to find ways to overcome them. He has his own room at home, with everything designed for his personal comfort.

One difficulty is getting the wheelchair in and out of the car trunk. This requires the assistance of another person.

To get around the neighborhood, Terry uses a motorized golf cart which he has had equipped with lights. He also uses the cart to go up the grade from his home to where he keeps his auto parked. A concrete ramp makes this easier.

Terry does a lot of reading, and especially enjoys western and detective novels. He also likes television and movies.

ASIDE FROM those who do not seem to realize that Terry wants to overcome his handicap and lead as normal a life as possible, the people have been "great," he says.

Terry has literally been flooded with get - well cards, Christmas cards, gifts and letters.

He has a large box, a large suitcase and a smaller suitcase jammed with greetings. "I never realized there were so many people or organizations in East Liverpool."

★ ★ ★

Terry started to attempt to answer them all, but finds the job is more than he can handle. "All I can do is say thanks and hope those who sent them will understand," he explained.

He says he has appreciated all the help that has been extended, and commented that Joseph Reed, local Veterans Administration representative, has aided in every way possible.

One major problem is the door on the car. It doesn't swing out far enough to permit Terry to get his golf cart close enough. So, he must transfer himself from the car back to the wheelchair and then into the car.

He is purchasing his present car, although he says benefits now have been approved for Vietnam veterans, and he should obtain the next car from the government.

Another problem is shopping. This causes trouble—. "Because I can't fight the crowds," Terry says, pointing out he was "trapped" in the corner of a store for about 30 minutes by the press of people.

Terry likes to target shoot, but says he must use a pistol. He has no sense of balance and cannot handle a rifle or shotgun. If he attempts to swing a rifle at an angle, he is liable to fall out of his chair. With a pistol, he can shoot with one hand and balance himself with the other.

He used to like to fish, but says to date he has not found any fishing site he can negotiate.

As for the future, Terry says he has no definite plans other than getting himself a home and leading a normal life.

With his determination—or "stubborness" as a sister put it—he probably will.

Kirkland, who has conferred with Arnold Snowden of Columbus, chief of the Ohio Division of Mines, said, "Something will definitely be done" about closing the shaft into which many have gone over the years and become lost, requiring search efforts by law officers, volunteers and mine authorities.

CLEANING TIPS From PRESSWELL

by Paul Seckman

First Aid Tip For Gravy Fallout

It's turkey gravy fallout time again and time to bring out the big napkins. But remember, lusty appetites often cause near misses of the largest napkins.

Here's a first hand account of how a drycleaner administers professional first aid — a National Institute of Drycleaning prescription for gravy fallout victims.

First the garment is drycleaned. This removes all oily and greasy substances. But the albuminous part of the stain still remains. So your cleaner uses an enzyme to digest it. This cleaner makes the albumen water soluble; so the drycleaner then applies natural detergent and flushes away the remainder of the stain with a steam gun.

It's pretty simple, when you know how.

Knit Care

No matter how careful you may be, there's always the day that a favored knit garment gets stained. Don't wait to have the spot removed. Bring the item to Presswell, and, while you still remember let the counter clerk know what caused the spot. Information about the fabric content of the knit — Acetate? Wool? Cotton?, Synthetic Blend? — is helpful too. With your assistance, our spotters can usually remove even so-called "difficult" stains without damaging the fabric.

Knits are becoming such an important part of women's wardrobes. From sportswear to evening wear, knits can be found to suit every climate and occasion. Treat your knits to the best care possible — and they'll give you many seasons of wearing pleasure.

When you bring your knits to us they receive the best care possible. They're measured before and after cleaning. For the return trip to your home, they're folded and placed in a special knit box.

Dogs Told After All

VIENNA (AP) — Two watchdogs guarding the premises of a trucking firm were unable to distinguish between good and bad guys. They let a thief sneak away with a bunch of stolen tires but attacked a policeman who came to investigate the thieft.

Police figured the thief was someone well known to the dogs and soon arrested an ex-employe.

duals he has never met and does not know.

As for the problems, Terry strives to find ways to overcome them. He has his own room at home, with everything designed for his personal comfort.

One difficulty is getting the wheelchair in and out of the car trunk. This requires the assistance of another person.

To get around the neighborhood, Terry uses a motorized golf cart which he has had equipped with lights. He also uses the cart to go up the grade from his home to where he keeps his auto parked. A concrete ramp makes this easier.

Terry does a lot of reading, and especially enjoys western and detective novels. He also likes television and movies.

ASIDE FROM those who do not seem to realize that Terry wants to overcome his handicap and lead as normal a life as possible, the people have been "great," he says.

Terry has literally been flooded with get - well cards, Christmas cards, gifts and letters.

He has a large box, a large suitcase and a smaller suitcase jammed with greetings. "I never realized there were so many people or organizations in East Liverpool."

★ ★ ★

Terry started to attempt to answer them all, but finds the job is more than he can handle. "All I can do is say thanks and hope those who sent them will understand," he explained.

He says he has appreciated all the help that has been extended, and commented that Joseph Reed, local Veterans Administration representative, has aided in every way possible.

One major problem is the door on the car. It doesn't swing out far enough to permit Terry to get his golf cart close enough. So, he must transfer himself from the car back to the wheelchair and then into the car.

He is purchasing his present car, although he says benefits now have been approved for Vietnam veterans, and he should obtain the next car from the government.

Another problem is shopping. This causes trouble—. "Because I can't fight the crowds," Terry says, pointing out he was "trapped" in the corner of a store for about 30 minutes by the press of people.

Terry likes to target shoot, but says he must use a pistol. He has no sense of balance and cannot handle a rifle or shotgun. If he attempts to swing a rifle at an angle, he is liable to fall out of his chair. With a pistol, he can shoot with one hand and balance himself with the other.

He used to like to fish, but says to date he has not found any fishing site he can negotiate.

As for the future, Terry says he has no definite plans other than getting himself a home and leading a normal life.

With his determination—or "stubborness" as a sister put it—he probably will.

A National Guard major was scheduled to confer with local mine inspectors for a visit to the site to determine if blasting might effectively close the entrances.

John Kirkland of Lisbon RD, deputy state mine inspector, said he planned to visit the property owner today to obtain a release for sealing the mine, and — if obtained — to erect "No Trespassing" signs about the site.

Kirkland, who has conferred with Arnold Snowden of Columbus, chief of the Ohio Division of Mines, said, "Something will definitely be done" about closing the shaft into which many have gone over the years and become lost, requiring search efforts by law officers, volunteers and mine authorities.

Lodge 'Thanked' For Boxes Sent To Servicemen

Fifty Christmas boxes sent by the Fraternal Order of Eagles 457 here and its auxiliary have been acknowledged in a letter by John J. Tolson, major general with the 1st Air Cavalry Division in Vietnam.

The general assured the lodge members that care was being taken to distribute the boxes to soldiers who would not be getting packages from their families. Sgt. Ed Valor, Army recruiter, advised the group.

The boxes contained a variety of personal items, books, a flavored drink, writing materials and Christmas cards. Last year the group sent 25 boxes with materials gathered from contributions and donations.

The lodge and its Auxiliary also are giving gifts for the needy to the Salvation Army.

Officer Cites East End Man On 2 Charges

An East End man was cited on two charges Saturday night after his truck drifted backwards and struck a concrete standard supporting a traffic beacon in the middle of the wide Walnut St. intersection at St. Clair Ave., police reported.

Harry Woomer, 46, of 1019½ Ohio Ave. was cited by Patrolman Charles Coen on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol and operating a motor vehicle after his driver's license had been revoked.

Woomer told the officer he was driving north on St. Clair Ave. and stopped just beyond the sharp bend north of Walnut St. Then his 1947 model truck coasted backwards and hit the traffic signal, he reported.

A woman complained of possible neck injuries after a two-car crash Saturday afternoon on E. 4th St. 35 feet east of Crook Alley, police said.

The collision involved a 1964 two-door sedan driven by Ernest P. Mackenzie, 62, of 306 Washington St. and a 1957 model four-door sedan operated by John Edwin Williams, 29, of 243 W. 3rd St., officers said.

Mrs. Dorothy Mackenzie, 59, a passenger in her husband's car, complained of neck injuries.

Mackenzie told police he was driving east on E. 4th St. when a car stopped in front of him to back into a parking place. When he halted, his car was hit from behind by the Williams auto, he said. Williams told police Mackenzie halted so suddenly he could not stop his car completely, but he said his vehicle was moving only 2 to 3 miles an hour at the time of the impact.

Head-On Mishap Leaves 4 Hurt

Four were injured, none seriously, in a head-on collision at New Cumberland early Sunday morning.

Treated and released at Weirton General Hospital were: Robert Burnsworth, 20, of 102 Adams St., New Cumberland; John R. Wright, 34, of New Cumberland RD 2; James Stewart, 21, of New Cumberland RD 1, and Robert Mayhew, 18, of Commerce St., New Cumberland.

Both autos were demolished. The two drivers, Burnsworth and Wright, were arrested for driving left of center on Ridge Ave. A hearing is set for 7:30 tonight in Squire John D. Herron's court.

700 Attend Program By Lisbon Students

LISBON — Students in the vocal music department of Lisbon schools presented Christmas vespers Sunday for more than 700 in the high school gymnasium.

Leonard Welch, vocal music instructor, presented the high school robed choir, the seventh and eighth grade select mixed chorus and the Lincoln Boychoir, a new singing group.

Personalities In The News

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI called Sunday for "just and pacific negotiations" as substitutes for "conflicts of force and blood" in an apparent reference to the Vietnam war.

The pontiff told a Sunday gathering in St. Peter's Square that "it seems important to educate the mentality of the new world to the habits of peace."

"It isn't an easy education," the Pope said, "but we, like the good teacher must be, must repeat and repeat our lesson."

He struck one note of hope: "There are also sincere and generous efforts to restore the system of peace and we must recognize them with prayers."

—:—

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Melina Mercouri, the Greek movie star who lost her citizenship for speaking out against the ruling military junta, says the "king doesn't exist for us anymore."

Miss Mercouri was talking about King Constantine, whose unsuccessful attempt last week to wrest control of the country caused him to flee.

"He will receive orders from his mama," Miss Mercouri told 1,200 persons at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology about the king's next move.

She said on her arrival at Logan Airport, before the concert, that "we were very depressed when we heard the king had left the country after a few hours."

Her appearance here was sponsored by the Boston chapter of the Committee for Restoration of Democratic Government for Greece.

"The king doesn't exist for us anymore" she said. "The Greek people will have nothing to do with him. If he comes back, he will be a puppet of the junta."

—:—

TORONTO (AP) — Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, the 77-year-old World War I ace who shot down 26 German aircraft and was decorated 19 times, told a publisher's representative here to learn to do his job.

"You bums don't know anything," the former flying ace told the publisher's representative when he arrived at Toronto International Airport to promote the sales of his autobiography.

The reason for Rickenbacker's displeasure was the small turnout at the airport.

"We'll get the crowd," the publisher's man said.

Later, Rickenbacker signed autographed copies of his life story in the airport bookstore.

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — The Rev. James Kavanaugh, a Roman Catholic priest who wrote "A Modern Priest Looks at His Outdated Church," was married last weekend.

He said, "I am acting in accord with my conscience before God."

Father Kavanaugh has asked to be released from the priesthood.

He and his bride, Patricia Jean Walden, a 35-year-old San Diego nurse, exchanged vows before an Episcopal priest. About 40 friends and relatives were at the ceremony in the home of Dr. Philip Kavanaugh, his brother.

NEW YORK (AP) — Helen Klaben, who survived 49 days in Alaska's frozen wasteland after a 1963 plane crash, is planning a honeymoon to the Caribbean and Florida.

Helen married securities analyst Robert Kahn in a simple ceremony Sunday in the Brooklyn home of her sister, Mrs. Lonnie Paul.

Helen, who works for a publishing firm, and Ralph Flores, then 42, were flying from Fairbanks, Alaska, to California when their plane crashed near the Yukon Territory. For 40 of the 49 days they had no food, and temperatures were around 48 degrees below zero.

—:—

BASEL, Switzerland (AP) — Civic pride produced a plurality here in a referendum authorizing the cantonal state government to purchase two Picasso paintings.

The two paintings have hung many years in the Basel Museum of Fine Arts.

The referendum, approved 32,118 to 27,190 last weekend, will make $1.04 million available to the government, which already has collected $500,000 toward the $1.9 million price from private donations.

The Picasso's, "The Two Brothers," and "Sitting Harlequin" are the property of Peter Staechelin, majority stockholder in the bankrupt Globe Airline.

He turned down a $2.5 million offer from an American buyer to sell the paintings to Basel.

Santa Joins In Festivities As BPW Holds Clinic Party

Santa Claus was on hand for the Christmas party for boys and girls of the Child Health Clinic Sunday afternoon at the Salvation Army under sponsorship of the East Liverpool Business and Professional Women's Club.

Sixty-five clinic patients received gifts of red stockings filled with "goodies," gift certificates and stuffed animals from Santa, portrayed by George McCullough. The children, as well as brothers, sisters and parents, were treated to a lunch of sandwiches, cookies, milk and ice cream.

Twenty-five members of the club and the NIKE Club of East Liverpool High School assisted Mrs. McCullough, clinic chairman, with the annual party.

Parents unable to attend are asked to pick up the gifts from Mrs. McCullough at McCullough Electric on E. 4th St. this week.

Lodge 'Thanked' For Boxes Sent To Servicemen

Fifty Christmas boxes sent by the Fraternal Order of Eagles 457 here and its auxiliary have been acknowledged in a letter by John J. Tolson, major general with the 1st Air Cavalry Division in Vietnam.

The general assured the lodge members that care was being taken to distribute the boxes to soldiers who would not be getting packages from their families. Sgt. Ed Valor, Army recruiter, advised the group.

The boxes contained a variety of personal items, books, a flavored drink, writing materials and Christmas cards. Last year the group sent 25 boxes with materials gathered from contributions and donations.

The lodge and its Auxiliary also are giving gifts for the needy to the Salvation Army.

Officer Cites East End Man On 2 Charges

An East End man was cited on two charges Saturday night after his truck drifted backwards and struck a concrete standard supporting a traffic beacon in the middle of the wide Walnut St. intersection at St. Clair Ave., police reported.

Harry Woomer, 46, of 1019½ Ohio Ave. was cited by Patrolman Charles Coen on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol and operating a motor vehicle after his driver's license had been revoked.

Woomer told the officer he was driving north on St. Clair Ave. and stopped just beyond the sharp bend north of Walnut St. Then his 1947 model truck coasted backwards and hit the traffic signal, he reported.

A woman complained of possiible neck injuries after a two-car crash Saturday afternoon on E. 4th St. 35 feet east of Crook Alley, police said.

The collision involved a 1964 two-door sedan driven by Ernest P. Mackenzie, 62, of 306 Washington St. and a 1957 model four-door sedan operated by John Edwin Williams, 29, of 243 W. 3rd St., officers said.

Mrs. Dorothy Mackenzie, 59, a passenger in her husband's car, complained of neck injuries.

Mackenzie told police he was driving east on E. 4th St. when a car stopped in front of him to back into a parking place. When he halted, his car was hit from behind by the Williams auto, he said. Williams told police Mackenzie halted so suddenly he could not stop his car completely, but he said his vehicle was moving only 2 to 3 miles an hour at the time of the impact.

700 Attend Program By Lisbon Students

LISBON — Students in the vocal music department of Lisbon schools presented Christmas vespers Sunday for more than 700 in the high school gymnasium.

Leonard Welch, vocal music instructor, presented the high school robed choir, the seventh and eighth grade select mixed chorus and the Lincoln Boychoir, a new singing group.

Personalities In The News

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI called Sunday for "just and pacific negotiations" as substitutes for "conflicts of force and blood" in an apparent reference to the Vietnam war.

The pontiff told a Sunday gathering in St. Peter's Square that "it seems important to educate the mentality of the new world to the habits of peace."

"It isn't an easy education," the Pope said, "but we, like the good teacher must be, must repeat and repeat our lesson."

He struck one note of hope: "There are also sincere and generous efforts to restore the system of peace and we must recognize them with prayers."

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Melina Mercouri, the Greek movie star who lost her citizenship for speaking out against the ruling military junta, says the "king doesn't exist for us anymore."

Miss Mercouri was talking about King Constantine, whose unsuccessful attempt last week to wrest control of the country caused him to flee.

"He will receive orders from his mama," Miss Mercouri told 1,200 persons at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology about the king's next move.

She said on her arrival at Logan Airport, before the concert, that "we were very depressed when we heard the king had left the country after a few hours."

Her appearance here was sponsored by the Boston chapter of the Committee for Restoration of Democratic Government for Greece.

"The king doesn't exist for us anymore" she said. "The Greek people will have nothing to do with him. If he comes back, he will be a puppet of the junta."

—:—

TORONTO (AP) — Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, the 77-year-old World War I ace who shot down 26 German aircraft and was decorated 19 times, told a publisher's representative here to learn to do his job.

"You bums don't know anything," the former flying ace told the publisher's representative when he arrived at Toronto International Airport to promote the sales of his autobiography.

The reason for Rickenbacker's displeasure was the small turnout at the airport.

"We'll get the crowd," the publisher's man said.

Later, Rickenbacker signed autographed copies of his life story in the airport bookstore.

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — The Rev. James Kavanaugh, a Roman Catholic priest who wrote "A Modern Priest Looks at His Outdated Church," was married last weekend.

He said, "I am acting in accord with my conscience before God."

Father Kavanaugh has asked to be released from the priesthood.

He and his bride, Patricia Jean Walden, a 35-year-old San Diego nurse, exchanged vows before an Episcopal priest. About 40 friends and relatives were at the ceremony in the home of Dr. Philip Kavanaugh, his brother.

NEW YORK (AP) — Helen Klaben, who survived 49 days in Alaska's frozen wasteland after a 1963 plane crash, is planning a honeymoon to the Caribbean and Florida.

Helen married securities analyst Robert Kahn in a simple ceremony Sunday in the Brooklyn home of her sister, Mrs. Lonnie Paul.

Helen, who works for a publishing firm, and Ralph Flores, then 42, were flying from Fairbanks, Alaska, to California when their plane crashed near the Yukon Territory. For 40 of the 49 days they had no food and temperatures were around 48 degrees below zero.

BASEL, Switzerland (AP) — Civic pride produced a plurality here in a referendum authorizing the cantonal state government to purchase two Picasso paintings.

The two paintings have hung many years in the Basel Museum of Fine Arts.

The referendum, approved 32,118 to 27,190 last weekend, will make $1.04 million available to the government, which already has collected $500,000 toward the $1.9 million price from private donations.

The Picasso's, "The Two Brothers," and "Sitting Harlequin" are the property of Peter Staechelin, majority stockholder in the bankrupt Globe Airline.

He turned down a $2.5 million offer from an American buyer to sell the paintings to Basel.

Court Suspends Driver's Permit In 90-Mile Pace

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today decreed a fine of $25 and costs and a 30-day suspension in the driver's license of John D. Morrell, 32, of 431 Jackson St., cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Saturday at 10:40 p. m. on a charge of driving 90 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the city section of the Freeway.

The court imposed a fine of $25 and costs on David A. Wilkinson, 19, of Valley Dr., charged with "driving an auto so as to cause the tires to squeal noisily."

Wilkinson was cited Sunday at 12:36 a. m. on Walnut St. by Patrolman David Huffman. In answer to a question from the judge Wilkinson denied he was "showing off" for passengers in his car.

Reunion For Lucy And Viv

"Remember the time the shower flooded and I put my foot on your back to push you to the bottom so you could pull the stopper?" shouts Vivian Vance, laughing hysterically.

"I do indeed remember. You almost drowned me," replied Lucy Ball.

"Well, it was your fault. That was the one thing I could have done — dived to the bottom — but, no, you were the star. You had to do it. I pushed you with my foot when I saw you couldn't make it to the bottom," says Viv, still laughing.

THE SCENE of this conversation between two old friends is Lucy Ball's office. Viv Vance is going to guest on "The Lucy Show," and it's been decided to do a show with the two gals reminiscing over their escapades together. It will be on the air Jan. 1.

Unfortunately, none of the repeat scense finally picked will be from the old "I Love Lucy" series, but are confined to the first three years of the current series in which just Lucy and Vi vwere partnered.

"It would be hard to find the right films, then there are other things like Bill Frawley being gone. It's another era, and I prefer not getting into it," says Lucy.

THAT ERA had Desi Arnaz in it, of course, and since they were divorced in 1960, Lucy probably would find it sticky to dip into the backlog of six seasons of "I Love Lucy."

Two classic scenes I recall from those vintage episodes were the one in which Lucy kept rehearsing a patent medicine commercial until she was stoned from drinking so much of the stuff.

Then there was the one where she and Viv were working in the chocolate candy factory and the belt line in the boxing department was speeded up to a point where the gals kept getting further and further behind.

After their conference with the writers and director, Lucy and Viv came up with four scenes from "The Lucy Show" during the time Viv was a regular on it. Both of them agreed that one of the funniest shows was the "bunk bed" episode. We sat and watched it replayed in a studio projection room.

"OH, OH! here it comes. Just watch this," says Viv, with keen anticipation, as the two of them prepare to go to bed in a pair of kids' bunk beds.

After Viv boosts Lucy into the upper bunk (the ladder is missing) and goes to sleep, Lucy decides she's hungry. When she gets back from the kitchen she doesn't want to wake Viv for help again, so, spotting a pair of her son's stilts, she gets up on them to stagger around the room and finally into the bunk.

Later, when Viv says the bottom bunk giver her claustrophobia, they both wind up in the upper, and Lucy again goes through the stilts routine. It's a very funny scene and ranks with some of those old two-reel comedies of the late Laurel and Hardy.

IN ADDITION to this one, Lucy and Viv picked scenes from episodes which had them putting up their own TV antenna, trying to retrieve a valuable penny from a sewer and getting Lucy in the Marines (she was drafted as Lou C. Carmichael).

"There was the one about the volunteer fire department, but the funniest part of it never got on film," says Lucy.

"I was supposed to slide down the fire pole fast, and I did it during rehearsal and nearly drove my heels right up through my chin when I landed. Brother, I want to tell you, I'd never do it again and that's why we don't have it on film!"

-:-

LUCY AND VIV will get into this reminiscing episode for Jan. 1 with Viv visiting Lucy in the hospital. She's in a cast and explains to Viv she just slipped on a rug and fell.

"After all the crazy things you've done, then to wind up this way by just slipping and falling!" Viv will say to Lucy, incredulously. Then the two gals begin to recall some of those "crazy things."

As we left the projection room and I bade goodby to the two of them, Viv hollered after me, "Don't write about how we laughed at ourselves!"

Personally, I think they've good reason to laugh at themselves in that film. They are very funny.

Transportation Experts Slate Safety Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nearly a dozen air transportation experts will participate in an air safety conference in Cincinnati Feb. 4 dealing with the entire field of flight security.

Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, cosponsor of the conference with Rep. Donald C. Clancy, R-Ohio, said he feels the meeting will bring a clearer understanding of flight safety problems.

He added that the specific circumstances surrounding recent air crashes in the Cincinnati area won't be re-examined, but the conference "might help develop sound attitudes on the part of officials and the public generally."

The conference will consider such problems as air traffic control, airport construction and modernization, flight crew training and all weather flying, and uniform standards for airport certification.

"We believe the recent accidents (at Greater Cincinnati Airport) have spotlighted the entire question of air safety," but they won't be re - examined, Taft said.

"OH, OH! here it comes. Just watch this," says Viv, with keen anticipation, as the two of them prepare to go to bed in a pair of kids' bunk beds.

After Viv boosts Lucy into the upper bunk (the ladder is missing) and goes to sleep, Lucy decides she's hungry. When she gets back from the kitchen she doesn't want to wake Viv for help again, so, spotting a pair of her son's stilts, she gets up on them to stagger around the room and finally into the bunk.

Later, when Viv says the bottom bunk giver her claustrophobia, they both wind up in the upper, and Lucy again goes through the stilts routine. It's a very funny scene and ranks with some of those old two-reel comedies of the late Laurel and Hardy.

IN ADDITION to this one, Lucy and Viv picked scenes from episodes which had them putting up their own TV antenna, trying to retrieve a valuable penny from a sewer and getting Lucy in the Marines (she was drafted as Lou C. Carmichatl).

"There was the one about the volunteer fire department, but the funniest part of it never got on film," says Lucy.

"I was supposed to slide down the fire pole fast, and I did it during rehearsal and nearly drove my heels right up through my chin when I landed. Brother, I want to tell you, I'd never do it again and that's why we don't have it on film!"

-:-

LUCY AND VIV will get into this reminiscing episode for Jan. 1 with Viv visiting Lucy in the hospital. She's in a cast and explains to Viv she just slipped on a rug and fell.

"After all the crazy things you've done, then to wind up this way by just slipping and falling!" Viv will say to Lucy, incredulously. Then the two gals begin to recall some of those "crazy things."

As we left the projection room and I bade goodby to the two of them, Viv hollered after me, "Don't write about how we laughed at ourselves!"

Personally, I think they've good reason to laugh at themselves in that film. They are very funny.

Transportation Experts Slate Safety Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nearly a dozen air transportation experts will participate in an air safety conference in Cincinnati Feb. 4 dealing with the entire field of flight security.

Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, cosponsor of the conference with Rep. Donald C. Clancy, R-Ohio, said he feels the meeting will bring a clearer understanding of flight safety problems.

He added that the specific circumstances surrounding recent air crashes in the Cincinnati area won't be re-examined, but the conference "might help develop sound attitudes on the part of officials and the public generally."

The conference will consider such problems as air traffic control, airport construction and modernization, flight crew training and all weather flying, and uniform standards for airport certification.

"We believe the recent accidents (at Greater Cincinnati Airport) have spotlighted the entire question of air safety," but they won't be re - examined, Taft said.

Burger and a son, David, 7, suffered minor injuries. Both were released following treatment at a hospital in nearby Bellaire.

Ex-Vice President Still Leads

Poll Shows Rockefeller, Reagan Gain On Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is still the first pick among Republican party professionals for the GOP presidential nomination but two other top unannounced prospects are closing his lead, a new poll says.

Elsewhere on the political scene, Gov. George Romney of Michigan, only major announced GOP candidate, is in Moscow and indications were he would meet Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin; Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., said President Johnson is in political trouble in his home state of Texas, and Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., a critic of the Vietnam war, said he's seriously thinking of entering the Indiana Democratic presidential primary as a favorite-son candidate.

The Gallup Poll said Sunday that while 52 per cent of the Republican county chairmen still prefer Nixon as the party's 1968 standard-bearer, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is ahead of him for the first time in the East. In a similar poll last April, Rockefeller was a weak third in the East behind Nixon and Romney.

Dr. George Gallup, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion, said Gov. Ronald Reagan of California has made enough gains among the party chairmen to make him second choice for the nomination, with 24 per cent of the professionals listing him as first preference. Rockefeller scored as first choice with 14 per cent, Romney 5 per cent and Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois 6 per cent.

Romney, on a foreign tour, is in the Soviet Union for two days. The Soviet government told the U.S. Embassy Romney will meet Soviet officials. While neither the Soviets nor the embassy would say which leaders, indications were it would be Kosygin.

'Project Not On Books Now,' Industry's Councilmen Told

Although the Pennsylvania Department of Highways recently announced allocations for projects during the coming year, apparently none involves the improvement of Route 68 through Industry Borough.

Representatives of Industry's Council, who met at Pittsburgh with J. B. McDonald, assistant engineer for the department, were told no program has been launched that includes Route 68.

Council had hoped to learn if the highway is to be relocated so it could proceed with plans for establishment of a recreation area.

Councilmen Homer Paul, president, James McGhee, chairman of the Borough Planning Commission, and Councilman William Ralph met with McDonald.

McDonald told the group no program has been started for the realignment of the artery through Ohio View, a residential district of Industry Borough.

Paul said at this time the borough is in no better ppsition to begin the planning function as the result of the meeting. However, he advised that McDonald said a feasibility study for realignment of the route could be undertaken in the spring. The results would then be made available to the borough so planning could prpceed accordingly.

Paul said the Industry Borough group presented some graphics indicating two possible alternate alignments for Route 68. These are depicted in the Industry Borough Comprehensive Plan prepared in 1965. He said, "We expressed a strong preference for an alignment to the south of the present community of Ohio View."

Following this, McDonald said consideration would be made of the comprehensive plan proposal and of the official thinking of the borough as presented to him.

3 Youths Held For Burglary

Three Midland youths, two of them juveniles, were apprehended early Sunday morning in the burglary of the Charles Tepsic Grocery Store on Tuscarawas Rd., Ohioville Borough.

Police Chief Bernard Zlatovich said the trio was taken into custody at 3:45 a.m.

Albert White, 18, of Midland Heights was arraigned yesterday morning before Squire Paul McGeehan on charges of burglary. He will receive a hearing Thursday at 4 p.m. in the Midland borough building.

The two juveniles, 16 and 17, are from Midland Heights and Midland. They were turned over to Beaver County Juvenile authorities at Allencrest.

Chief Zlatovich commended Patrolmen Leo LeFebvre and James Dunlap for their quick action in picking up the youths. Police said they gained entrance to the store through a small 12-inch square window leading to the basement.

Police were on a routine check of the borough when they noticed a car parked in the area with a youth inside operating a walkie - talkie unit.

Asked what he was doing, the youth said he was checking with two buddies to determine the distance the unit would carry, police said. Becoming suspicious, LeFebvre went to the front of the store. Looking through the window, he saw two others moving about inside.

LeFebvre rattled the doorknob and two inside ran out the back door into the arms of Zlatovich and Dunlap.

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Western Pennsylvania was represented by two of the top five scorers in the country according to the first statistics release from the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

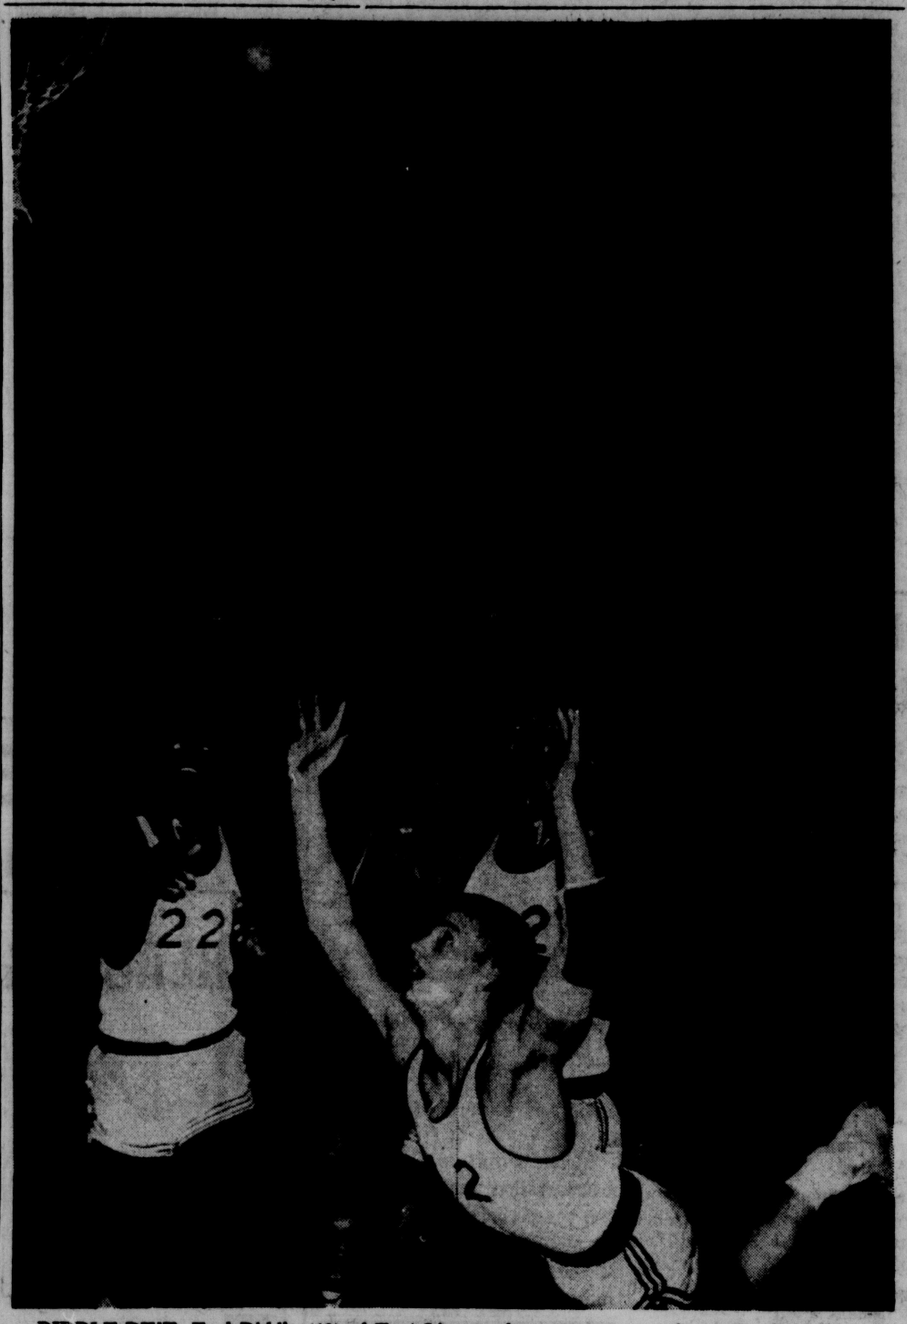
'Pistol Pete' Maravich, from Aliquippa, was averaging 47.0 points a game for his dad's LSU team to lead the country. Simmy Hill, former Midland great, ranked fifth with a 33.0 average for West Texas State. Fantastic Calvin Murphy of Niagara was second to Maravich with a 45.0 point average. The averages of Maravich and Murphy were higher than any ever recorded in major college basketball, even at this early date. Fred Foster of Miami is hitting 29.0 for 10th spot, Hank South of Cornell and Pittsburgh South Hills Catholic is 27th with a 24.7 mark, Reggin Lacefield of Western Michigan is 44th and Doug Grayson of Kent State is 46th.

Grayson is 12th in field goal percentage with 61.4 percent. Dick Cunningham, former Canton star, now at Murray State, is second in rebounding to Neal Walk of Florida. Don May of Dayton is ninth in rebounding.

In team statistics, Toledo was leading the country in offense with a 107.7 average per game. Duquesne was 20th at 9.5. Defensively, Ohio State ranked 12th with 58.3 ppg yielded. Miami was the third best shooting team with a 53.1 percent mark and Western Michigan was sixth at 51.7.

AS IF I didn't go to enough basketball games, Thursday night I trekked to Cleveland to see Calvin Murphy play. The people in the audience who had never seen him before were impressed by his 41 points, but it was not one of his better games. He got off to a slow start, not scoring in the first seven minutes and committing as many turnovers as in a whole game last season. Part of his problem may have been the makeshift floor in the Cleveland Arena, an edifice that must have been built shortly after Dr. Naismith hung up his peach baskets. But once he got going, Murphy dazzled the crowd with a series of stunning steals, passes, dribbles and shots.

THE STEELERS' stunner over Green Bay yesterday will give the faithful fans hope for 1968. And the Pirates' acquisition of Jim Bunning should mean a happy Christmas for Buc rooters. Duquesne lost its first game Saturday night, but there has to be a fly in the ointment some place.



DIDDLE DIVE. Earl Diddle (12) of East Liverpool connects on a fantastic diving lay-up against Pittsburgh South at the Memorial Auditorium Saturday night. Watching the shot are Jerry Christian (22) and Mitchell Jones of East Liverpool and Tom Farrington of South. Potters won 69-45.

Diddle, M. Jones Scoring Leaders

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Getting balanced scoring from all starters, Clint McConnell's East Liverpool Potters swept to their fourth straight win with a 69-45 triumph over Pittsburgh South Saturday night at the Memorial Auditorium.

The visitors' highly-touted 6-6 Lamonte Pruitt turned out to be more of a showboat than a basketball player, as he scored only four points, drew a technical and fouled out early in the third period. He was scoreless until 10 seconds remained in the first half.

Earl Diddle topped the home club with 19 points, while Mitchell Jones added 13, Bill Montgomery 12, Jerry Christian 10 and Rick Steffen 9. Christian had 15 rebounds and Jones 14 as the Potters dominated the boards 55-35. Aside from Pruitt the visitors had no one over 6-1. Herman Hemphill gathered in 12 rebounds for South, while Tom Farrington and Jim Meade each scored 14 points.

The game was rather ragged, EL committing 19 turnovers and South 21. The Potters hit 39 per cent and South 32 per cent.

The loss was the first for the Orioles after three wins. Friday night South had steamrollered Millvalle 118-46 and coach Glen Miller said that the difference between the play of his team Friday and Saturday was like day and night. He might have added that the difference between Millvale, one of the weakest teams in the WPIAL, and East Liverpool was also like day and night.

McConnell was not particularly pleased with the Potters' play and noted that East Liverpool will have to play much better to beat Aliquippa, which visits the M.A. Friday. McConnell said that the local team did not take advantage of their offensive opportunities well enough.

The home team never trailed and Diddle, Jones and Montgomery led the way in the first period. An eight-point outburst early in the second quarter made it 26-12 and settled the outcome for all intents and purposes. South got back to 37-27 and 39-29 in the third period, but no closer.

Rick Steffen is suffering from a twisted ankle, but is expected to be in good shape for the Aliquippa game.

Beaver Local Loses First, Falls At E. Palestine 72-61

EAST PALESTINE — Beaver Local suffered its first loss after five wins here Saturday night as the East Palestine Bulldogs won their fourth in five tries by a 72-61 score.

Dan McKinstrey, a 5-11 dynamo, scored 34 points, only one short of the school record, to pace the triumph for Jack Swinderman's team. McKinstry also had 20 rebounds as the Bulldogs controlled the boards 42-22.

EP led all the way, but Rex Campbell scored 12 points in the third period as the Beavers closed to 40-37. But the Bulldogs pulled away for the win.

Both teams pressed and ran fast breaks, but the presses were generally ineffective and there were few turnovers. Both teams hit on 28 field goals, but East Palestine converted 16 of 20 foul shots while Beaver Local only took eight charity tosses, converting five.

The home team also won the reserve game, 44-39. Mike O'Brien had 15 for the winners and Rick Squires 16 for the losers.

Half Million Bet Saturday At Waterford

Beyond The Pale won the Jolly Ole St. Nick purse at Waterford Park Saturday as the 5,530 fans on hand wagered the highest single race program mark since opening day.

Final figures showed $588,095 went through the mutuel machines. On opening day back on February 17, $595,609 was wagered. The Saturday racing card was the final at Waterford until the day after Christmas when racing will be resumed for five days through Saturday, Dec. 30.

In the jockey race Joseph Calvello took over undisputed lead by winning aboard two mounts. Young apprentice rider Calvello and veteran Bill Sollars have been engaged in a battle for the title the past two weeks. At the conclusion of Saturday's card Calvello had 69 winners to his credit with Sollars close on his heels with 67 winning mounts. Both boys are remaining here for the final five days of racing.

Springfield Defeats Stanton In Overtime

Stanton suffered its fourth loss of the season, three by four points or less, as Springfield (Jefferson) won 60-58 in overtime Saturday night at Springfield.

The Red Raiders, who have won one, led all the way, and were up 54-48 with 51 seconds left in regulation play. But the Tigers, now 5-0, tied the score on a basket by Ken Gordon with 18 seconds left and Stanton missed a last shot. In the overtime Greg Starr scored all four of his points and Tom Gregor added two foul shots to make it 60-56 with 10 seconds left. A last ditch basket by Elmer Tice was not enough for Stanton.

A half-court press by Springfield bothered the losers and Dave Murray's club was also hurt when Randy Frampton and Dave Olesky fouled out. They led the scoring with 16 and 17 respectively. Gordon had 28 and Jack McConnaughy 17 for Bob Raber's team.

In the reserve contest Springfield won 63-29. Doug Koehnlein had 10 for the losers and Schultz 10 for the winners.

Beaver Local Loses First, Falls At E. Palestine 72-61

EAST PALESTINE — Beaver Local suffered its first loss after five wins here Saturday night as the East Palestine Bulldogs won their fourth in five tries by a 72-61 score.

Dan McKinstrey, a 5-11 dynamo, scored 34 points, only one short of the school record, to pace the triumph for Jack Swinderman's team. McKinstry also had 20 rebounds as the Bulldogs controlled the boards 42-22.

EP led all the way, but Rex Campbell scored 12 points in the third period as the Beavers closed to 40-37. But the Bulldogs pulled away for the win.

Both teams pressed and ran fast breaks, but the presses were generally ineffective and there were few turnovers. Both teams hit on 28 field goals, but East Palestine converted 16 of 20 foul shots while Beaver Local only took eight charity tosses, converting five.

The home team also won the reserve game, 44-39. Mike O'Brien had 15 for the winners and Rick Squires 16 for the losers.

Half Million Bet Saturday At Waterford

Beyond The Pale won the Jolly Ole St. Nick purse at Waterford Park Saturday as the 5,530 fans on hand wagered the highest single race program mark since opening day.

Final figures showed $588,095 went through the mutuel machines. On opening day back on February 17, $595,609 was wagered. The Saturday racing card was the final at Waterford until the day after Christmas when racing will be resumed for five days through Saturday, Dec. 30.

In the jockey race Joseph Calvello took over undisputed lead by winning aboard two mounts. Young apprentice rider Calvello and veteran Bill Sollars have been engaged in a battle for the title the past two weeks. At the conclusion of Saturday's card Calvello had 69 winners to his credit with Sollars close on his heels with 67 winning mounts. Both boys are remaining here for the final five days of racing.

Springfield Defeats Stanton In Overtime

Stanton suffered its fourth loss of the season, three by four points or less, as Springfield (Jefferson) won 60-58 in overtime Saturday night at Springfield.

The Red Raiders, who have won one, led all the way, and were up 54-48 with 51 seconds left in regulation play. But the Tigers, now 5-0, tied the score on a basket by Ken Gordon with 18 seconds left and Stanton missed a last shot. In the overtime Greg Starr scored all four of his points and Tom Gregor added two foul shots to make it 60-56 with 10 seconds left. A last ditch basket by Elmer Tice was not enough for Stanton.

A half-court press by Springfield bothered the losers and Dave Murray's club was also hurt when Randy Frampton and Dave Olesky fouled out. They led the scoring with 16 and 17 respectively. Gordon had 28 and Jack McConnaughy 17 for Bob Raber's team.

In the reserve contest Springfield won 63-29. Doug Koehnlein had 10 for the losers and Schultz 10 for the winners.

Rams Whip Colts 34-10 For Coastal Title

Steelers Surprise Green Bay 24-17

Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Unitas spent an endless hour hurrying in the wrong direction . . . and watching Los Angeles turn the National Football League's Coastal showdown into a Roman carnival.

Roman Gabriel, the Rams' strong armed quarterback, eclipsed superstar Unitas Sunday by firing three touchdown passes as Los Angeles drubbed the previously unbeaten Baltimore Colts 34-10 for the Coastal Division title.

While Gabriel connected on 18 of 22 passes for 257 yards—to the delight of 77,277 revelers in the Los Angeles Coliseum—the Ram defenders hurried Unitas into two costly interceptions and dropped the NFL's Most Valuable Player seven times for losses totaling 48 yards.

"The crux of our defensive plan for this game," said LA Coach George Allen, "was not to allow Unitas enough time to throw the ball, because he can thread the needle in a crowd."

The Rams' Fearsome Foursome—Lamar Lundy, Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Roger Brown—followed Allen's plan to the letter.

In snapping Baltimore's 13-game unbeaten streak, the Rams extended their own winning string to eight games and advanced into next Saturday's Western Conference championship playoff against Green Bay's Central Division kings.

Los Angeles and Baltimore tied 24-24 in their first meeting and finished in an 11-1-2 deadlock. The Rams, however, got the title nod by virtue of their point edge in the two games against the Colts.

The Packers, who nailed the Central crown three weeks ago, were upset by Pittsburgh 24-17 Sunday. New York pounded St. Louis 37-14, New Orleans stunned Washington 30-14, Philadelphia toppled Cleveland's Century champs 28-24, Chicago beat Atlanta 23-14 and Detroit trimmed Minnesota 14-3 in other games.

Dallas' Capitol Division winners, who meet Cleveland for the Eastern Conference championship next Sunday, bowed to San Francisco 24-16 Saturday.

Trailing 7-3 early in the second quarter, the Rams took charge on Gabriel's 80-yard scoring strike to Jack Snow and 23-yard TD pass to Bernie Casey. The second score followed Ed Meador's interception of a Unitas pass, thrown while Jones was draped over the Colt quarterback's shoulders.

Los Angeles boosted its lead to 20-7 in the third quarter on Bruce Gossett's second field goal. After Lou Michaels booted a three-pointer for the Colts, Gabriel capped a 67-yard drive with a nine-yard payoff pitch to Billy Truax.

The Rams' final touchdown, scored by Dick Bass from two yards out, came after Unitas was dropped at his own four-yard line for an eight-yard loss on fourth down.

"We played our best game of the year and put everything together," Allen said. "Green Bay? I'd like to enjoy Baltimore first."

End Ben McGee rambled 21 yards with a deflected Green Bay pass for one touchdown and tackle Chuck Hinton plodded 27 yards with a recovered fumble for another score as Pittsburgh's defensive unit wrecked the Packers, who substituted freely in their final pre-playoff tune-up.

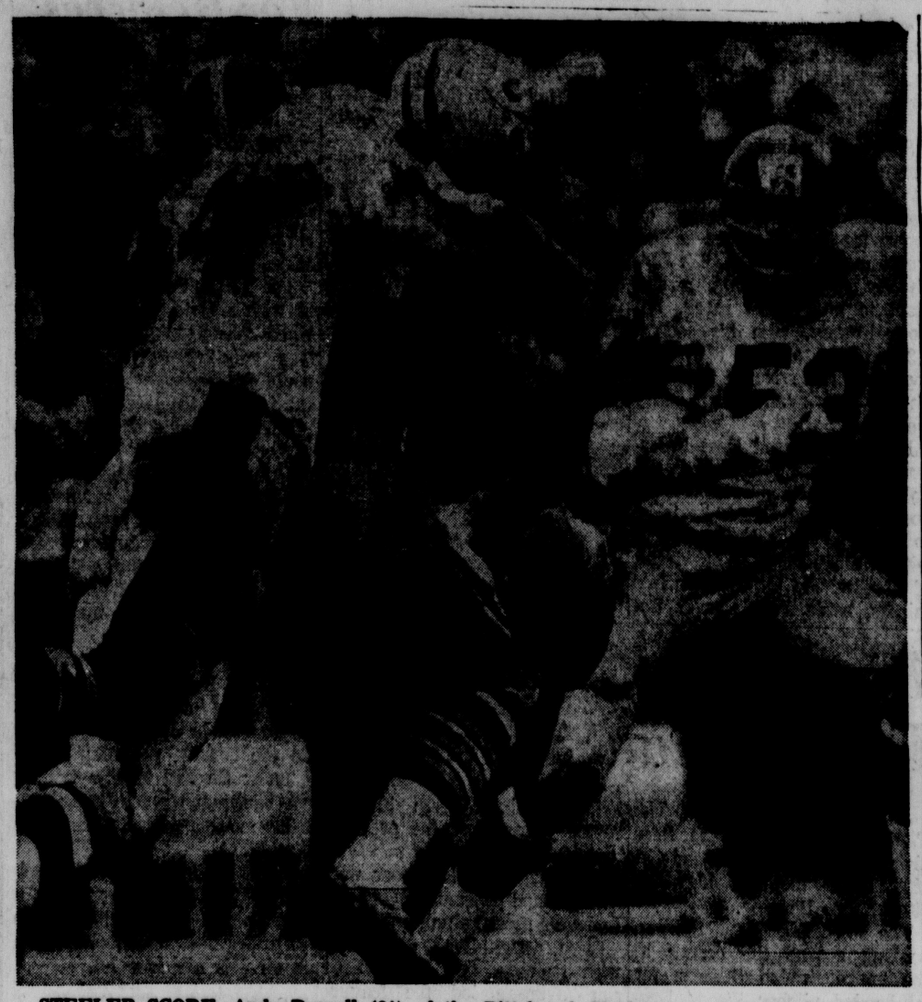
New York's Fran Tarkenton tossed four touchdown passes—two to Aaron Thomas—as the Giants overpowered injury-plagued St. Louis and captured second place in the Century race.

The Saints nailed Washington punt returner John Love for a third-quarter safety, breaking a 7-7 tie, and struck again 19 seconds later on Randy Schultz' one-yard TD plunge following Walter Roberts' 68-yard free kick runback. They pulled away on Bill Kilmer's second TD pass to Dan Abramowtiz and Don McCall's 49-yard scoring jaunt.

Norm Snead threw three scoring passes against the Browns, who rested several regulars and went all the way with third string quarterback Gary Lane. Sam Baker kicked four extra points for the Eagles and moved into third place on the all-time NFL scoring list with 824 career points—one more than Don Hutson, the former Green Bay flash.

Gale Sayers ran 51 yards for a touchdown, caught a 32-yard TD pass from Jack Concannon and finished with 120 rushing yards in Chicago's triumph over the Falcons. Mac Percival added three field goals for the Bears.

Rookie Lem Barney led the Lions past Minnesota with three pass interceptions, returning one 71 yards for a touchdown and setting up Detroit's other score with another.



STEELER SCORE. Andy Russell (34) of the Pittsburgh Steelers causes Green Bay Packer quarterback Zeke Bratkowski to fumble and Chuck Hinton (not shown) picked up the football and ran for a TD as the Steelers upset the Packers 24-17 in Green Bay yesterday. Steeler John Campbell is 53. (UPI Telephoto)

Jets Lose To Oakland

Oilers Clinch AFL East Tie

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach Weeb Ewbank thinks the New York Jets were at a disadvantage after the opening kickoff. Maybe. But one thing is certain—they are at a disadvantage now.

"This will probably cost me money, but I've got to say it," Ewbank fumed after Sunday's 38-29 loss to the Oakland Raiders.

He then scored the officials "for letting the game get out of hand. I thought the officiating was poor. I feel we were at a disadvantage after the kickoff."

Ewbank's criticism not only most likely will cost him money in the form of a league fine, the loss very likely will cost the Jets a shot at the American Football League title.

The Jets, 7-5-1, now trail Houston, 24-17 winner over San Diego Saturday, by one game in the Eastern Division race. Houston can win the title and the right to meet Western Division champion Oakland, 12-1-0, for the league crown by beating Miami next Saturday. The Jets play San Diego next Sunday.

In other AFL games Sunday, Kansas City trounced Denver 38-24 and Miami outlasted Boston 41-32.

The Jets' Joe Namath, who set an AFL season record of 3,650 yards passing, threw for 356 yards and three touchdowns but took a beating in the process—suffering a possible fractured right cheek bone.

Namath, who was spitting blood during the game, said he didn't know when or how the injury occurred and refused to say Oakland played rough. The Raiders twice were penalized for roughing the passer.

Oakland, which suffered its only loss of the season to the Jets, went ahead in the third period, 17-14, on the second of Daryle Lamonica's three TD passes.

The Raiders then made it 24-14 on Lamonica's final scoring strike, and after stopping the Jets two feet from their goal, they drove 99 yards to run it to 31-14.

Another AFL record fell in the Kansas City-Denver game when rookie Noland Smith returned a kickoff 106 yards for a Kansas City TD. Len Dawson passed for three touchdowns for the winning chiefs.

Miami broke its game open with a 28-point second quarter. Two of the touchdowns in the spurt came on Bob Griese passes, two came on interceptions.

Art Heyman Paces Win For Pipers

By The Associated Press

All Art Heyman needed was to get away from the shores of the Hudson.

The former Duke All-America, a bust with the New York Knicks a few seasons back and recently traded by the New Jersey Americans of the American Basketball Association, has found a happy home in Pittsburgh.

Heyman scored 31 points for the Pipers Sunday night — including nine of the team's 16 points in overtime — to lead Pittsburgh to a 121-116 triumph over the Minnesota Muskies.

In the only other ABA game Sunday, the New Orleans Buccaneers whipped the Oakland Oaks 121-110.

Connie Hawkins added 24 points to the Pipers' total, though Mel Daniels of Minnesota led all scorers with 32 points. Pittsburgh is now 1½ games behind the Muskies in the Eastern Division.

Clippers Clip Eagles, Gaughn, Vestfals High

HANOVERTON — Columbiana used a big second period to record a 65-57 win over United here Saturday night.

The game was tied at 17-17, but the Clippers outscored the home team 22-11 in the second stanza and never trailed afterwards. Dan Gaughn netted 16 points, George Vestfals 15 and Bill Gela 10 for the winners, while Tad Drake had 18 and Larry Kibler 14 for Jack Mills' club, now 2-2. Rich Berryman's team is now 3-2. Vestfals led the Clippers in rebounds with 16.

The visitors were red hot, sinking 51 per cent of their shots to 36 per cent by the Golden Eagles.

Columbiana also won the reserve game, 59-45, as Denny Weber had 13, Dave McGuckin had 11 and Dave Oliver 10.

Steelers Surprise Green Bay 24-17

Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Unitas spent an endless hour hurrying in the wrong direction . . . and watching Los Angeles turn the National Football League's Coastal showdown into a Roman carnival.

Roman Gabriel, the Rams' strong armed quarterback, eclipsed superstar Unitas Sunday by firing three touchdown passes as Los Angeles drubbed the previously unbeaten Baltimore Colts 34-10 for the Coastal Division title.

While Gabriel connected on 18 of 22 passes for 257 yards—to the delight of 77,277 revelers in the Los Angeles Coliseum—the Ram defenders hurried Unitas into two costly interceptions and dropped the NFL's Most Valuable Player seven times for losses totaling 48 yards.

"The crux of our defensive plan for this game," said LA Coach George Allen, "was not to allow Unitas enough time to throw the ball, because he can thread the needle in a crowd."

The Rams' Fearsome Foursome—Lamar Lundy, Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Roger Brown—followed Allen's plan to the letter.

In snapping Baltimore's 13-game unbeaten streak, the Rams extended their own winning string to eight games and advanced into next Saturday's Western Conference championship playoff against Green Bay's Central Division kings.

Los Angeles and Baltimore tied 24-24 in their first meeting and finished in an 11-1-2 deadlock. The Rams, however, got the title nod by virtue of their point edge in the two games against the Colts.

The Packers, who nailed the Central crown three weeks ago, were upset by Pittsburgh 24-17 Sunday. New York pounded St. Louis 37-14, New Orleans stunned Washington 30-14, Philadelphia toppled Cleveland's Century champs 28-24, Chicago beat Atlanta 23-14 and Detroit trimmed Minnesota 14-3 in other games.

Dallas' Capitol Division winners, who meet Cleveland for the Eastern Conference championship next Sunday, bowed to San Francisco 24-16 Saturday.

Trailing 7-3 early in the second quarter, the Rams took charge on Gabriel's 80-yard scoring strike to Jack Snow and 23-yard TD pass to Bernie Casey. The second score followed Ed Meador's interception of a Unitas pass, thrown while Jones was draped over the Colt quarterback's shoulders.

Los Angeles boosted its lead to 20-7 in the third quarter on Bruce Gossett's second field goal. After Lou Michaels booted a three-pointer for the Colts, Gabriel capped a 67-yard drive with a nine-yard payoff pitch to Billy Truax.

The Rams' final touchdown, scored by Dick Bass from two yards out, came after Unitas was dropped at his own four-yard line for an eight-yard loss on fourth down.

"We played our best game of the year and put everything together," Allen said. "Green Bay? I'd like to enjoy Baltimore first."

End Ben McGee rambled 21 yards with a deflected Green Bay pass for one touchdown and tackle Chuck Hinton plodded 27 yards with a recovered fumble for another score as Pittsburgh's defensive unit wrecked the Packers, who substituted freely in their final pre-playoff tune-up.

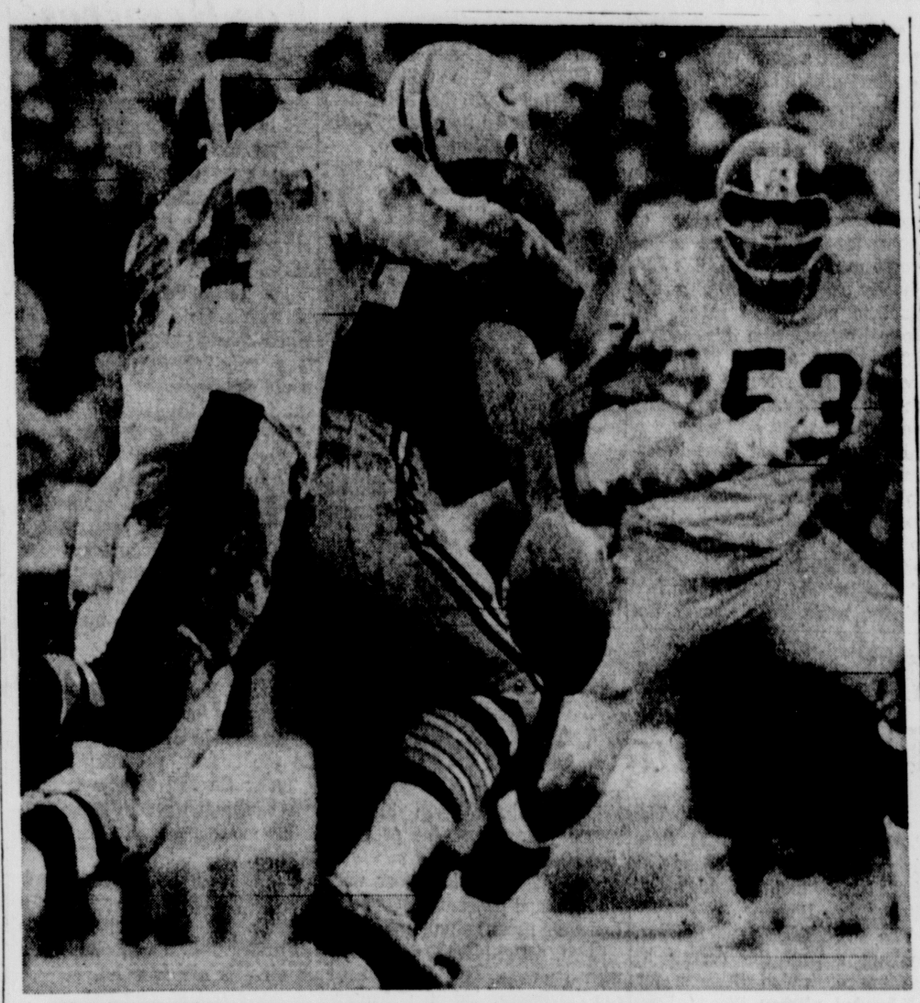
New York's Fran Tarkenton tossed four touchdown passes—two to Aaron Thomas—as the Giants overpowered injury-plagued St. Louis and captured second place in the Century race.

The Saints nailed Washington punt returner John Love for a third-quarter safety, breaking a 7-7 tie, and struck again 19 seconds later on Randy Schultz' one-yard TD plunge following Walter Roberts' 68-yard free kick runback. They pulled away on Bill Kilmer's second TD pass to Dan Abramowtiz and Don McCall's 49-yard scoring jaunt.

Norm Snead threw three scoring passes against the Browns, who rested several regulars and went all the way with third string quarterback Gary Lane. Sam Baker kicked four extra points for the Eagles and moved into third place on the all-time NFL scoring list with 824 career points—one more than Don Hutson, the former Green Bay flash.

Gale Sayers ran 51 yards for a touchdown, caught a 32-yard TD pass from Jack Concannon and finished with 120 rushing yards in Chicago's triumph over the Falcons. Mac Percival added three field goals for the Bears.

Rookie Lem Barney led the Lions past Minnesota with three pass interceptions, returning one 71 yards for a touchdown and setting up Detroit's other score with another.



STEELER SCORE. Andy Russell (34) of the Pittsburgh Steelers causes Green Bay Packer quarterback Zeke Bratkowski to fumble and Chuck Hinton (not shown) picked up the football and ran for a TD as the Steelers upset the Packers 24-17 in Green Bay yesterday. Steeler John Campbell is 53. (UPI Telephoto)

Jets Lose To Oakland

Oilers Clinch AFL East Tie

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach Weeb Ewbank thinks the New York Jets were at a disadvantage after the opening kickoff. Maybe. But one thing is certain—they are at a disadvantage now.

"This will probably cost me money, but I've got to say it," Ewbank fumed after Sunday's 38-29 loss to the Oakland Raiders.

He then scored the officials "for letting the game get out of hand. I thought the officiating was poor. I feel we were at a disadvantage after the kickoff."

Ewbank's criticism not only most likely will cost him money in the form of a league fine, the loss very likely will cost the Jets a shot at the American Football League title.

The Jets, 7-5-1, now trail Houston, 24-17 winner over San Diego Saturday, by one game in the Eastern Division race. Houston can win the title and the right to meet Western Division champion Oakland, 12-1-0, for the league crown by beating Miami next Saturday. The Jets play San Diego next Sunday.

In other AFL games Sunday, Kansas City trounced Denver 38-24 and Miami outlasted Boston 41-32.

The Jets' Joe Namath, who set an AFL season record of 3,650 yards passing, threw for 356 yards and three touchdowns but took a beating in the process—suffering a possible fractured right cheek bone.

Namath, who was spitting blood during the game, said he didn't know when or how the injury occurred and refused to say Oakland played rough. The Raiders twice were penalized for roughing the passer.

Oakland, which suffered its only loss of the season to the Jets, went ahead in the third period, 17-14, on the second of Daryle Lamonica's three TD passes.

The Raiders then made it 24-14 on Lamonica's final scoring strike, and after stopping the Jets two feet from their goal, they drove 99 yards to run it to 31-14.

Another AFL record fell in the Kansas City-Denver game when rookie Noland Smith returned a kickoff 106 yards for a Kansas City TD. Len Dawson passed for three touchdowns for the winning chiefs.

Miami broke its game open with a 28-point second quarter. Two of the touchdowns in the spurt came on Bob Griese passes, two came on interceptions.

Art Heyman Paces Win For Pipers

By The Associated Press

All Art Heyman needed was to get away from the shores of the Hudson.

The former Duke All-America, a bust with the New York Knicks a few seasons back and recently traded by the New Jersey Americans of the American Basketball Association, has found a happy home in Pittsburgh.

Heyman scored 31 points for the Pipers Sunday night — including nine of the team's 16 points in overtime — to lead Pittsburgh to a 121-116 triumph over the Minnesota Muskies.

In the only other ABA game Sunday, the New Orleans Buccaneers whipped the Oakland Oaks 121-110.

Connie Hawkins added 24 points to the Pipers' total, though Mel Daniels of Minnesota led all scorers with 32 points. Pittsburgh is now 1½ games behind the Muskies in the Eastern Division.

Clippers Clip Eagles, Gaughn, Vestfals High

HANOVERTON — Columbiana used a big second period to record a 65-57 win over United here Saturday night.

The game was tied at 17-17, but the Clippers outscored the home team 22-11 in the second stanza and never trailed afterwards. Dan Gaughn netted 16 points, George Vestfals 15 and Bill Gela 10 for the winners, while Tad Drake had 18 and Larry Kibler 14 for Jack Mills' club, now 2-2. Rich Berryman's team is now 3-2. Vestfals led the Clippers in rebounds with 16.

The visitors were red hot, sinking 51 per cent of their shots to 36 per cent by the Golden Eagles.

Columbiana also won the reserve game, 59-45, as Denny Weber had 13, Dave McGuckin had 11 and Dave Oliver 10.

Franchise To Be Given In KC Jan. 11

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The American League will meet in Kansas City Jan. 11 to award a franchise to one of four local applicants.

The league's expansion committee met separately Thursday with the applicants in their homes and their offices and announced the date and place of the league meeting, which previously had been set for Chicago.

The league recently approved transfer of the Kansas City Athletics, owned by Charles Finley, to Oakland, Calif., and will expand to 12 teams in 1969. Seattle is expected to be the other city taken into the league.

Vanderbilt Edges Duke

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Third-ranked Vanderbilt, which survived a determined bid by an underdog, and sixth-ranked Boston College, which didn't, lead the way into college basketball's annual round of holiday tournaments this week.

The Commodores, who outlasted Duke 76-75 Saturday night, open their own invitational tournament in Nashville, Tenn., Friday with a game against Seton Hall. Oregon meets Wake Forest in the other first-round game.

The Eagles, upset in 91-90 overtime by St. John's, N.Y. meet North Carolina State Wednesday in a first-round game in the Boston Garden's invitational. Providence and LaSalle are also in the tournament.

Fourth-ranked Kentucky, which lost to North Carolina last week, hosts its tournament which opens Friday in Lexington, Ky. The Colonels play Dayton while Cincinnati meets South Carolina.

Other tournaments that get under way this week are:

Tampa, Fla., Invitational, which begins Wednesday, with Seattle, Rutgers, Auburn and St. Bonaventure.

Marshall tournament at Huntington, W.Va., which begins Wednesday with Manhattan, Bowling Green, Marshall and Virginia.

Sun Carnival at El Paso, Tex., which begins Thursday, with Maryland, the University of Texas at El Paso, Southern Illinois and San Francisco.

Sun Devil Classic at Phoenix, Ariz., which begins Thursday, with Michigan, Arizona State, Oregon State and Oklahoma State.

In addition, one tournament that started over the weekend, the Virginia-VPI Invitational at Blacksburg, Va., finishes up tonight with Yale and Virginia playing for the championship.

Vanderbilt's victory over Duke Saturday came on Bob Wyenandt's 25-foot jump shot with two seconds to go. The Blue Devils, who had won four straight, had taken the lead with 26 seconds to play on Mike Lewis' jumper.

St. John's won on two free throws by John Warren with 20 seconds left in overtime Sunday. The victory offset a 46-point performance by Boston College's Terry Driscoll, who led a second-half comeback after the Eagles trailed 48-41 at halftime.

Seventh-ranked North Carolina bumped 10th-rated Princeton from the unbeaten ranks Saturday, downing the Tigers 71-63. Sophomore Charlie Scott had 17 points for the Tarheels.

Red Sox Sweep AL Bat Honors

BOSTON (AP) — The pennant-winning Boston Red Sox, with Triple Crown winner Carl Yastrzemski leading the way, virtually swept team batting honors in the American League for 1967.

The official figures released Saturday by League President Joe Cronin showed that Boston took team honors with a .255 batting average, 158 home runs, 666 runs batted in, 722 runs scored, 1,394 hits, and 2,162 total bases. They tied Minnesota for the lead in doubles with 216.

The only major categories in which the Red Sox did not finish on top were triples and stolen bases, where the speed-minded Kansas City Athletics showed the way with 50 and 132, respectively.

The figures showed Yastrzemski dominating the individual statistics. The slugging outfielder won his second batting title with a .326 mark and also led in runs batted in with 121 while tying Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew for the home run championship with 44 to win the Triple Crown Honor.

In addition, Yaz topped the league in hits (189), total bases (360) and runs scored (112), while his 31 doubles put him second to Minnesota's Tony Oliva, who led with 34.

Futhey Takes Yogi Lead, Consensus, Shaffer 9-1

The Review Yogis, as a group, had a good week selecting basketball scores over the weekend, as the consensus went 9-1

Some of the individual members didn't do as well, however, as last week's order was almost reversed. Turk Pierce, on top a week ago, turned in the worst mark this week, 6-4. Bob Shaffer recovered from a bad start to post a 9-1 mark, but Tom Futhey, with his second 8-2 week in a row, took over the lead. Rose Nuzzo also had an 8-2 mark and Bob Duffy went 7-3.

Everyone missed East Palestine's 72-61 win over Beaver Local. Nuzzo was also wrong on Southern Local, an 89-70 loser to Lisbon, while Futhey fell with Wellsville, a 66-34 victim of Steubenville Central. Duffy's misses, aside from Beaver Local, were Oak Glen, a 77-71 loser to Wellsburg, and United, a 65-57 loser to Columbiana. Pierce fell with the latter two games, Beaver Local and Southern Local against Lisbon.

Everyone was right on East Liverpool, which whipped Midland 74-36 and topped Pittsburgh South 69-45; Springfield, a 70-68 overtime winner over Stanton; United in their 75-59 win over Southern Local and Beaver Local in their 59-40 pasting of Toronto.

Due to a scarcity of games this weekend the Yogis will not be in action this week.

Pirates Get Bunning For Fryman, 3 Others

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates, with their sights aimed dead ahead at 1968, have acquired front-line pitcher Jim Bunning.

The Philadelphia Phillies, peeking around the corner at the future, traded Bunning for left-handed pitcher Woody Fryman and three minor league players.

As in most player trades, everybody felt they got the best part of the deal.

"We dealt for the present," Pirate General Manager Joe L. Brown said after dealing away four young prospects for the agile but aging Bunning.

Bunning is 36. Fryman, the oldest of the new Phillies is 24.

The key player in the deal for the Phillies was actually minor leaguer Don Money, a promising shortstop.

The Phillies, in a rebuilding program, said they couldn't turn down the deal with Money in it. Philadelphia General Manager John Quinn said the 20-year-old Money is the best infield prospect his scouts have seen in years.

The Phillies also got pitchers Harold Clem and Bill Laxton.

"They wanted a big price, and they got it," Brown said.

Neither Bunning nor Fryman was disappointed with the deal.

"I'll like the better hitting we'll have in Pittsburgh," Bunning said in an interview.

Bunning lost five 1-0 games with the Phillies last year. Five losses were more than the difference between a 17-15 season and Bunning's first visit to the 20-game circle as a National Leaguer. He made the mark with Detroit before going to the Phillies. In Philadelphia he was a 19-game victor in each of three straight seasons before 1967.

Fryman wasted no time signing a Philadelphia contract. He became the first Phillie to sign for 1968 a few hours after the trade was announced.

Fryman was 3-8 last year with Pittsburgh. Shoulder trouble held him back from his 12-9 rookie year record the previous season.

Money hit .310 last year with Raleigh and was the Carolina League's most valuable player.

Clem, a right-hander, was 15-3 with Raleigh. His 1.64 earned run average led the league. Southpaw Laxton had a 4-9 record with Clinton, Iowa, of the Midwest League.

Late Spurt Brings Win For Reserves

Ignited by two goals by Jim Massey, his first of the game, the East Liverpool reserves ran off 10 straight points in the last period to break open a close game and win their fourth straight this season with a 49-38 win over the Pittsburgh South reserves Saturday night at the M.A.

The Little Potters trailed 34-33 with 5:45 to go in the game when the streak began. There was only 2:20 left before South could score again and by that time it was too late.

EL ran off nine straight points in the first period to break a 5-5 tie, but with the score 16-7 early in the second stanza the visitors came back with 12 in a row, all by Gil Livisey and Stan Pielin. Neither team could get more than three points ahead until the final surge by Frank Melchiorre's club.

Guards Al Parson, with 18, and Kim Kemple, with 13, led the scoring for the winners. Jack Melvin again did a yeoman job on the boards, grabbing 18 rebounds. He had trouble finding the range at the foul line, however, netting only 2 of 13 attempts.

Pielin and Bob Samolovitch were high for the losers with eight points each while Mike Weischer had 11 rebounds. The South JVs are now 1-2.

Vanderbilt Edges Duke

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Third-ranked Vanderbilt, which survived a determined bid by an underdog, and sixth-ranked Boston College, which didn't, lead the way into college basketball's annual round of holiday tournaments this week.

The Commodores, who outlasted Duke 76-75 Saturday night, open their own invitational tournament in Nashville, Tenn., Friday with a game against Seton Hall. Oregon meets Wake Forest in the other first-round game.

The Eagles, upset in 91-90 overtime by St. John's, N.Y. meet North Carolina State Wednesday in a first-round game in the Boston Garden's invitational. Providence and La-Salle are also in the tournament.

Fourth-ranked Kentucky, which lost to North Carolina last week, hosts its tournament which opens Friday in Lexington, Ky. The Colonels play Dayton while Cincinnati meets South Carolina.

Other tournaments that get under way this week are:

Tampa, Fla., Invitational, which begins Wednesday, with Seattle, Rutgers, Auburn and St. Bonaventure.

Marshall tournament at Huntington, W.Va., which begins Wednesday with Manhattan, Bowling Green, Marshall and Virginia.

Sun Carnival at El Paso, Tex., which begins Thursday, with Maryland, the University of Texas at El Paso, Southern Illinois and San Francisco.

Sun Devil Classic at Phoenix, Ariz., which begins Thursday, with Michigan, Arizona State, Oregon State and Oklahoma State.

In addition, one tournament that started over the weekend, the Virginia-VPI Invitational at Blacksburg, Va., finishes up tonight with Yale and Virginia playing for the championship.

Vanderbilt's victory over Duke Saturday came on Bob Wyenandt's 25-foot jump shot with two seconds to go. The Blue Devils, who had won four straight, had taken the lead with 26 seconds to play on Mike Lewis' jumper.

St. John's won on two free throws by John Warren with 20 seconds left in overtime Sunday. The victory offset a 46-point performance by Boston College's Terry Driscoll, who led a second-half comeback after the Eagles trailed 48-41 at halftime.

Seventh-ranked North Carolina bumped 10th-rated Princeton from the unbeaten ranks Saturday, downing the Tigers 71-63. Sophomore Charlie Scott had 17 points for the Tarheels.

Ninth-rated Indiana beat North Carolina State 101-97 with sophomore Joe Cooke's 27 points leading the way. Calvin Murphy, Niagara's star sophomore pumped in 52 points, leading his team to a 100-83 victory over La-Salle.

Barefield Leads Lisbon Over Southern Local

Stan Barefield led the visitors with 27 while Jim Courtney added 19 and Terry Apple 17. Rob Carter hit 22 for the losers and Mike Cramer netted 10.

Lisbon, utilizing a fast break, hit 50 per cent of its shots. Southern connected on 32 per cent. Lisbon is now 2-2.

In the reserve contest, Lisbon won 55-47 as Gardner had 15 points. Junior McKenzie had 14 and Rick Keven 10 for the losers.

Bob Shaffer recovered from a bad start to post a 9-1 mark, but Tom Futhey, with his second 8-2 week in a row, took over the lead. Rose Nuzzo also had an 8-2 mark and Bob Duffy went 7-3.

Everyone missed East Palestine's 72-61 win over Beaver Local. Nuzzo was also wrong on Southern Local, an 89-70 loser to Lisbon, while Futhey fell with Wellsville, a 66-34 victim of Steubenville Central. Duffy's misses, aside from Beaver Local, were Oak Glen, a 77-71 loser to Wellsburg, and United, a 65-57 loser to Columbiana. Pierce fell with the latter two games, Beaver Local and Southern Local against Lisbon.

Everyone was right on East Liverpool, which whipped Midland 74-36 and topped Pittsburgh South 69-45; Springfield, a 70-68 overtime winner over Stanton; United in their 75-59 win over Southern Local and Beaver Local in their 59-40 pasting of Toronto.

Due to a scarcity of games this weekend the Yogis will not be in action this week.

Pirates Get Bunning For Fryman, 3 Others

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates, with their sights aimed dead ahead at 1968, have acquired front-line pitcher Jim Bunning.

The Philadelphia Phillies, peeking around the corner at the future, traded Bunning for left-handed pitcher Woody Fryman and three minor league players.

As in most player trades, everybody felt they got the best part of the deal.

"We dealt for the present," Pirate General Manager Joe L. Brown said after dealing away four young prospects for the agile but aging Bunning.

Bunning is 36. Fryman, the oldest of the new Phillies is 24.

The key player in the deal for the Phillies was actually minor leaguer Don Money, a promising shortstop.

The Phillies, in a rebuilding program, said they couldn't turn down the deal with Money in it. Philadelphia General Manager John Quinn said the 20-year-old Money is the best infield prospect his scouts have seen in years.

The Phillies also got pitchers Harold Clem and Bill Laxton.

"They wanted a big price, and they got it," Brown said.

Neither Bunning nor Fryman was disappointed with the deal.

"I'll like the better hitting we'll have in Pittsburgh," Bunning said in an interview.

Bunning lost five 1-0 games with the Phillies last year. Five losses were more than the difference between a 17-15 season and Bunning's first visit to the 20-game circle as a National Leaguer. He made the mark with Detroit before going to the Phillies. In Philadelphia he was a 19-game victor in each of three straight seasons before 1967.

Fryman wasted no time signing a Philadelphia contract. He became the first Phillie to sign for 1968 a few hours after the trade was announced.

Fryman was 3-8 last year with Pittsburgh. Shoulder trouble held him back from his 12-9 rookie year record the previous season.

Money hit .310 last year with Raleigh and was the Carolina League's most valuable player.

Clem, a right-hander, was 15-3 with Raleigh. His 1.64 earned run average led the league. Southpaw Laxton had a 4-9 record with Clinton, Iowa, of the Midwest League.

Late Spurt Brings Win For Reserves

Ignited by two goals by Jim Massey, his first of the game, the East Liverpool reserves ran off 10 straight points in the last period to break open a close game and win their fourth straight this season with a 49-38 win over the Pittsburgh South reserves Saturday night at the M.A.

The Little Potters trailed 34-33 with 5:45 to go in the game when the streak began. There was only 2:20 left before South could score again and by that time it was too late.

EL ran off nine straight points in the first period to break a 5-5 tie, but with the score 16-7 early in the second stanza the visitors came back with 12 in a row, all by Gil Livfsey and Stan Pielin. Neither team could get more than three points ahead until the final surge by Frank Melchiorre's club.

Guards Al Parson, with 18, and Kim Kemple, with 13, led the scoring for the winners. Jack Melvin again did a yeoman job on the boards, grabbing 18 rebounds. He had trouble finding the range at the foul line, however, netting only 2 of 13 attempts.

Pielin and Bob Samolovitch were high for the losers with eight points each while Mike Weischer had 11 rebounds. The South JVs are now 1-2.

U.N. Goes On Three-A-Day Schedule To End Session

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly went on a three-a-day schedule today, with morning, afternoon and night meetings, in an attempt to end its 22nd annual session by midnight Tuesday.

High on the assembly's program was the establishment of a 30-member special committee to try to draft a definition of aggression—something various U.N. bodies have been trying to do since 1950.

Main Political Committee, with two meetings lined up, drove toward a vote on eight resolutions on various aspects of disarmament.

Two of the resolutions were revised overnight in line with a weekend compromise agreement designed to prevent a 1968 conference of countries that don't have nuclear weapons from interfering with the general negotiations on a treaty to check the spread of nuclear weapons.

One of these resolutions called on the Geneva Disarmament Committee to report by March 15. The assembly would resume its session soon after to take up the report.

The resolution was amended to say the committee should consider the views stated in the current assembly—including, by implication, the demand of some countries not having nuclear weapons that the nuclear powers should give them security guarantees in return for their accepting the treaty.

The other resolution had called for a Geneva conference of nonnuclear countries March 11-April 10. The date was changed to next August and September.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov, U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg and delegates of 26 other interested countries worked out the compromise at private meetings Saturday and Sunday.

Midland Police Hunt Auto That 'Wasn't There'

Midland police came up with a real mystery over the weekend.

They still are searching for clues to the whereabouts of a car that apparently wrecked, but wasn't there.

It all began when an unidentified man entered a Midland market and reported he had seen a car go over the hill along Route 68 near the entrance to the borough. Children using the 1st St. Playground said they heard tires screeching and saw a cloud of dust.

Skid marks were seen on the highway, but a search of the entire bank in the area proved in vain. Joe Finnerty, a signal and communications maintainenceman for the Pennsylvania Railroad, was working on telephone lines in the area at the time. He asked the engineer of an approaching train to check tracks. The engineer found nothing.

When the excitement died down, there was evidence that a mishap had occurred. But the vehicle still is missing.

Fire Claims Man, 80, In Salem Shop

SALEM — An 80-year-old spaghetti house operator attempted to quell a grease fire but collapsed and died of smoke inhalation in the blaze Sunday afternoon.

Michael DeRienzo, owner of the DeRienzo Spaghetti Shop of S. Broadway, was claimed in the fire which broke out in the kitchen of the 2½-story structure about 2:30 p.m.

His wife, Nicolina, and a waitress, Eldora Leider, escaped after trying to get him out of the building. Occupants of an apartment on the second floor of the building also fled to safety. Another apartment above the restaurant was vacant.

Firemen said the elderly man was lighting the gas - fired french fryer in preparation for opening for business later in the afternoon. The grease somehow ignited, and the flames spread. He was attempting to quell the blaze with an extinguisher when he apparently collapsed.

The waitress was arriving when she saw the smoke. After efforts to get him out of the building, a passerby managed to get into the structure and was pulling the owner toward the front door when firemen arrived.

Officials said he died of asphyxiation.

Driver Cited After Mishap

A Chester motorist was injured and arrested for drunken driving after the vehicle he was driving struck two parked cars on Route 2 near Chester late Saturday night.

U.N. Goes On Three-A-Day Schedule To End Session

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly went on a three-a-day schedule today, with morning, afternoon and night meetings, in an attempt to end its 22nd annual session by midnight Tuesday.

High on the assembly's program was the establishment of a 30-member special committee to try to draft a definition of aggression—something various U.N. bodies have been trying to do since 1950.

Main Political Committee, with two meetings lined up drove toward a vote on eight resolutions on various aspects of disarmament.

Two of the resolutions were revised overnight in line with a weekend compromise agreement designed to prevent a 1968 conference of countries that don't have nuclear weapons from interfering with the general negotiations on a treaty to check the spread of nuclear weapons.

One of these resolutions called on the Geneva Disarmament Committee to report by March 15. The assembly would resume its session soon after to take up the report.

The resolution was amended to say the committee should consider the views stated in the current assembly—including, by implication, the demand of some countries not having nuclear weapons that the nuclear powers should give them security guarantees in return for their accepting the treaty.

The other resolution had called for a Geneva conference of nonnuclear countries March 11-April 10. The date was changed to next August and September.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov, U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg and delegates of 26 other interested countries worked out the compromise at private meetings Saturday and Sunday.

Midland Police Hunt Auto That 'Wasn't There'

Midland police came up with a real mystery over the weekend.

They still are searching for clues to the whereabouts of a car that apparently wrecked, but wasn't there.

It all began when an unidentified man entered a Midland market and reported he had seen a car go over the hill along Route 68 near the entrance to the borough. Children using the 1st St. Playground said they heard tires screeching and saw a cloud of dust.

Skid marks were seen on the highway, but a search of the entire bank in the area proved in vain. Joe Finnerty, a signal and communications maintainenceman for the Pennsylvania Railroad, was working on telephone lines in the area at the time. He asked the engineer of an approaching train to check tracks. The engineer found nothing.

When the excitement died down, there was evidence that a mishap had occurred. But the vehicle still is missing.

Fire Claims Man, 80, In Salem Shop

SALEM — An 80-year-old spaghetti house operator attempted to quell a grease fire but collapsed and died of smoke inhalation in the blaze Sunday afternoon.

Michael DeRienzo, owner of the DeRienzo Spaghetti Shop of S. Broadway, was claimed in the fire which broke out in the kitchen of the 2½-story structure about 2:30 p.m.

His wife, Nicolina, and a waitress, Eldora Leider, escaped after trying to get him out of the building. Occupants of an apartment on the second floor of the building also fled to safety. Another apartment above the restaurant was vacant.

Firemen said the elderly man was lighting the gas - fired french fryer in preparation for opening for business later in the afternoon. The grease somehow ignited, and the flames spread. He was attempting to quell the blaze with an extinguisher when he apparently collapsed.

The waitress was arriving when she saw the smoke. After efforts to get him out of the building, a passerby managed to get into the structure and was pulling the owner toward the front door when firemen arrived.

Officials said he died of asphyxiation.

Mrs. Esther DeTemple 424-5965

LISBON — A smorgasbord dinner at 6:30 was featured Thursday when members of The Stepping Stones, with their husbands as guests, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hill of Sunset Dr.

Dinner was served in the recreation room to 28. A mum arrangement centered the table, with red tapers at either side.

During a short business session conducted by Mrs. Wilford Culler, a donation of $100 was approved for Ohio Valley College at Parkersburg, W. Va. The Stepping Stones are affiliated with the Church of Christ on Beaver St. here.

Carols were sung.

The next meeting will be Jan. 18.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. commissioner of education should be promoted to the President's Cabinet and the machinery by which funds for education are appropriated should be speeded up, a House subcommittee recommends.

Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., said in a statement that her subcommittee also urges units inside the U.S. Office of Education be pulled together to eliminate overlap.

She said Cabinet status for the head of the agency—currently Harold Howe II, 47—would permit the President and Congress to oversee more effectively the federal government's responsibilities to education.

Late federal funding of educational projects, she said, causes severe problems for local school systems. "Our study," she said, "suggests a possible answer would be appropriation one year in advance of the fiscal year in which the school year begins."

The study's principal finding, said Mrs. Green, is that there is "an overwhelming determination and desire on the part of responsible educational administrators of the nation that the federal government should be the junior partner in education —in fact as well as in platitudes and political platforms."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., says he will ask the Supreme Court to permit suits testing the constitutionality of federal aid to church schools.

Ervin said he will make the request in a friend-of-the-court brief in connection with a pending case on behalf of Americans for Public Schools and the Baptist General Association of Virginia.

"These two groups have asked me to present their views to the court because they are convinced that only by judicial review of the First Amendment can the public schools be protected and religious liberty be preserved," he said in a statement. "I share their views completely."

Capital Footnote

The Treasury Department says it has enough new coinage on hand to avoid dipping into the stock of old, 90-per-cent silver coins it has withdrawn from circulation. It had feared heavy Christmas-season demands might force the release of some of these coins. Most newly minted coins are made of copper and nickel.

Capital Quote

"McCarthy has as much chance as a Viet Cong standing in the middle of that (Da Nang) air base runway. Maybe he's tired of politics and wants to go out in a blaze of glory....He is one of the most ill-advised political adventurers in history."—Rep. Joseph Y. Resnick, D-N.Y., commenting while on a tour of South Vietnam on the entrance of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy into presidential primaries.

Girl, 12, Hospitalized In Fighting Incident

A 12-year-old girl was admitted to City Hospital late Saturday afternoon with injuries allegedly suffered in what police termed a "neighborhood fight" of youngsters in the 1600 block of St. George St.

Karen Sue Neville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neville of 1623 Ohio Ave., suffered contusions of the left cheek, nose and the back of the head.

Patrolman Charles Coen reported he was dispatched to the neighborhood at 3:50 p. m. on a report there was a fight in the street. But the fight broke up while he was en route, he said. A discussion with the parents indicated only a group of neighborhood children was involved, he related.

After the child was admitted to the hospital, her father indicated she had been struck by an adult, the officer said. The case has been referred to Juvenile Court at Lisbon, he reported.

SPLIT PERSONALITY seems to be the forte of Clement Freud, grandson of Sigmund Freud, pioneer in modern psychiatry. Clement, a journalist, gourmet and television performer appears here as a jockey in an Irish horse race.

Services Set For Palestine Ditch Victim

EAST PALESTINE — Services will be held Tuesday for the father of a city man who was killed Saturday when buried alive in the collapse of a sewer ditch on E. Grant St.

Dale E. Kyser, 58, of Greenville, Pa., was pronounced dead at the site after volunteer firemen and others uncovered his body from the 12-foot ditch.

Kyser and his son, Dale Kyser, 30, of Brookdale Ave. were laying a sewer for the new parsonage of the First Church of the Nazarene about 3 p. m.

The son, a Youngstown steelworker, was operating a backhoe when he saw the walls of the ditch start to crumble. He yelled, but his father was unable to scramble out of the excavation in time. He was buried under the soil for about 15 minutes.

In addition to his son and his widow, Mrs. Louella Kyser at home, he is survived by another son, John Kyser, at home; two daughters, Mrs. Louella Jaillet of Mercer, Pa., and Mrs. Mary Belle Shaffer of Greenville, and three sisters.

Services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 at the Christian Missionary Alliance in Greenville.

Girl Injured By Fall Here

A city girl injured in a fall on the street Saturday was admitted to City Hospital, where eight others were treated over the weekend.

Peggy May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George May of 815 Bank St., is in "satisfactory" condition with a possible concussion sustained when she fell in the street.

Treated Sunday were Martin Schwartz Jr. of 1226 Ceramic St., a puncture wound of the foot on a nail; Robert Miller Jr. of New Cumberland RD 2, a sprain of the right ankle while playing basketball.

Aldon Caron of 1106 Dresden Ave., a laceration of the forehead in a fall on cement; Robert Anderson of 1013 Monaca St., a laceration of the lip in a fall at home.

Treated Saturday were Leslie Miller of the Westfield Rd., a puncture wound of the right foot on a nail; Andrew Simko of 1961 Michigan Ave., multiple lacerations of the forehead in a fall on a street.

Mrs. Thomas Govey of 332 Louisiana Ave., Chester, a laceration of the left thumb while preparing dinner; Terry Lynn Beckman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beckman of Chester, a laceration of the chin on a coffee table.

$1,550 In Bills Paid By Franklin Township

SUMMITVILLE — Bills totaling $1,550 were paid by the Franklin Township trustees at a meeting Saturday afternoon at the township hall. George McPherson, president, announced ashes and salt have been stored in piles along roadways at hills for motorists' use.

Slag has been placed at muddy areas of other roads, he said. All the township snow fences have been erected, it was reported.

The next meeting will be Dec. 30.

Rites Set Wednesday For Prison Warden

MOUNDSVILLE (AP) — Funeral services are scheduled at Parkersburg Wednesday for Otto C. Boles, 58, warden of the West Virginia prison here. He died late Saturday at his home, probably of a heart attack. Boles had been ill several months.

Assistant warden Ira Coiner assumed charge of the prison pending action by Gov. Hulett Smith.

Boles once was sheriff of Wood County. He had been warden of the state prison since 1961.

Bids Are Due On Road Job

The Ohio Highway Department will open bids Feb. 6 for construction of a 6.6 - mile section of Ohio 11 in Columbiana County between Route 154, east of Lisbon, and a point on Route 164, southwest of Columbiana.

P. E. Masheter, highway director, said the estimated $5,800,000 project will connect with the 5.9-mile Ohio 11 project to the south between Route 30 at West Point and Route 154 now under construction.

The four - lane, divided expressway section, which will be built to interstate standards, will include two sets of twin bridges to carry Ohio 11 over Ohio 517 and Fairfield Twp. Rd. 839.

Single structures will carry Ohio Rts. 163 and 558 and Elkrun Twp. Rd. 867 (Church Hill Rd.) over Ohio 11.

Fairfield Township Rds. 857 and 862 will be cut off at Ohio 11 and Twp. Rd. 1157 will be relocated to the east and reconnected to Twp. Rd. 859.

Glenmoor Driver Hurt In Auto-Truck Mishap

Kenneth G. McPeek, 53, of Glenmoor complained of neck and back injuries after his halted car was hit from the rear by a truck at 8:44 a. m. today on Broadway 20 feet south of Potters Alley, police reported.

McPeek told officers he would go to City Hospital for examination. McPeek's 1960 sedan was hit from the rear by a 1966 truck driven by John W. Ball, 18, of 1562 Globe St. and owned by the Hays Oil Co. of E. 5th St. and Broadway, officers said.

Ball told officers he saw McPeek's halted car, but as he started to brake the truck his foot slipped off the pedal.

Auto Fumes Fatal To Cincinnati Man

CINCINNATI (AP) — Arthur Meyers, a 53-year-old Cincinnati man, was found dead in his car here Sunday by his sister, Anna Meyers.

Miss Meyers said she found her brother in his car parked in the garage at their home.

Police said the ignition key was turned on and the radio was playing and the car door next to him was open as was the garage door.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. commissioner of education should be promoted to the President's Cabinet and the machinery by which funds for education are appropriated should be speeded up, a House subcommittee recommends.

Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., said in a statement that her subcommittee also urges units inside the U.S. Office of Education be pulled together to eliminate overlap.

She said Cabinet status for the head of the agency—currently Harold Howe II, 47—would permit the President and Congress to oversee more effectively the federal government's responsibilities to education.

Late federal funding of educational projects, she said, causes severe problems for local school systems. "Our study," she said, "suggests a possible answer would be appropriation one year in advance of the fiscal year in which the school year begins."

The study's principal finding, said Mrs. Green, is that there is "an overwhelming determination and desire on the part of responsible educational administrators of the nation that the federal government should be the junior partner in education —in fact as well as in platitudes and political platforms."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., says he will ask the Supreme Court to permit suits testing the constitutionality of federal aid to church schools.

Ervin said he will make the request in a friend-of-the-court brief in connection with a pending case on behalf of Americans for Public Schools and the Baptist General Association of Virginia.

"These two groups have asked me to present their views to the court because they are convinced that only by judicial review of the First Amendment can the public schools be protected and religious liberty be preserved," he said in a statement. "I share their views completely."

The Treasury Department says it has enough new coinage on hand to avoid dipping into the stock of old, 90-per-cent silver coins it has withdrawn from circulation. It had feared heavy Christmas-season demands might force the release of some of these coins. Most newly minted coins are made of copper and nickel.

Resnick, D-N.Y., commenting while on a tour of South Vietnam on the entrance of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy into presidential primaries.

Girl, 12, Hospitalized In Fighting Incident

A 12-year-old girl was admitted to City Hospital late Saturday afternoon with injuries allegedly suffered in what police termed a "neighborhood fight" of youngsters in the 1600 block of St. George St.

Karen Sue Neville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neville of 1623 Ohio Ave., suffered contusions of the left cheek, nose and the back of the head.

Patrolman Charles Coen reported he was dispatched to the neighborhood at 3:50 p. m. on a report there was a fight in the street. But the fight broke up while he was en route, he said. A discussion with the parents indicated only a group of neighborhood children was involved, he related.

After the child was admitted to the hospital, her father indicated she had been struck by an adult, the officer said. The case has been referred to Juvenile Court at Lisbon, he reported.

SPLIT PERSONALITY seems to be the forte of Clement Freud, grandson of Sigmund Freud, pioneer in modern psychiatry. Clement, a journalist, gourmet and television performer appears here as a jockey in an Irish horse race.

The son, a Youngstown steelworker, was operating a backhoe when he saw the walls of the ditch start to crumble. He yelled, but his father was unable to scramble out of the excavation in time. He was buried under the soil for about 15 minutes.

In addition to his son and his widow, Mrs. Louella Kyser at home, he is survived by another son, John Kyser, at home; two daughters, Mrs. Louella Jaillet of Mercer, Pa., and Mrs. Mary Belle Shaffer of Greenville, and three sisters.

Services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 at the Christian Missionary Alliance in Greenville.

Hope For Break In Weather

Thousands Of Indians Marooned In Snowstorm

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. (AP) — The Navajo tribe, rocked by the worst winter storm in memory of old - timers, hopes for a break in the weather to reach thousands marooned by snow up to four feet in depth.

"The situation is pretty terrible," said Frank Chambers, Navajo tribal police assistant superintendent.

Bureau of Indian Affairs officials estimated 60,000 Navajos are in varying degrees of distress from the storm that struck the reservation last Tuesday night.

Air Force cargo planes and helicopters were prepared to drop food, shelter, clothes and medical supplies for the Indians. Doctors were to accompany the helicopters.

"The first thing we are going to worry about is the people." said an Air Force spokesman.

"We pray for no more snow," said the tribal police superintendent, V. Allen Adams. "The one thing we don't need is more snow. The old-timers say they have never seen anything like it."

At least one person is dead from the storm, a 60-year-old crippled sheep herder who lived in the sprawling reservation's northeast area. There were unconfirmed reports of five other deaths.

At Rough Rock a family of five, including three children, were extremely ill from exposure, Navajo police said.

Adams estimated 16,000 to 18,000 square miles of the 25,000-square mile reservation, largest in the United States, was affected by the storm.

In many areas, deep snow immobilized tracked snow vehicles and other heavy equipment.

There were reports 150 to 200 persons might be marooned in the Pinion, Ariz., area in the northeast section of the reservation. A helicopter, flying from Nellis Air Force Base, Nev., reported seeing mirrors on the ground in the region, signaling for assistance.

The Air Force moved into Window Rock during the weekend to fly helicopters with food and medical assistance. Bad weather had curtailed the rescue operation.

Eight C119 transports dropped an estimated 40,000 pounds of hay on the stricken Hopi reservation in central Arizona, which borders the Navajo area.

"We've got to get the people where they can take care of themselves," Adams said. "The Indian people have lived in hard country all of their lives. They have the ability to survive. They know what to do."

The sheepherder's death was one of several caused by the massive storm in the Southwest during the weekend. Three Ft. Bliss, Tex., soldiers died when a chartered bus carrying servicemen home on Christmas leave overturned on an icy highway east of El Paso, Tex.

Other deaths included two occupants of a single-engine plane which crashed onto a central New Mexico mountainside during a snow storm. The victims were Doss Maner, the pilot, of Alamogordo, N.M., and Alex Padilla, of Albuquerque, N.M. One of four survivors of the crash, Frank Reeder of Albuquerque, said, "I didn't get scared until I looked out and saw treetops. Then I knew we were in trouble."

State Aid For Non-Public Schools Will Be Proposed

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Constitutional Convention returned to work today with several delegates poised to introduce a proposal this week that would authorize state aid to non-public schools.

Del. German Quiles, D-Philadelphia, said he would be one of the sponsors of the controversial proposal.

"I expect quite a few delegates to put their names on to the proposal," he said.

Quiles said his proposal does not have the support of the Pennsylvania Catholic Conference which is pressing the legislature for immediate state aid.

The convention, meanwhile, is expected to work four days this week and then take a holiday break until Jan. 2. However, the four major standing committees plan to hold public hearings during the recess.

Jan. 5 is the deadline for delegates to introduce proposals from the floor.

Committees have until Feb. 2 to report back to the floor whether they are for or against a proposal.

Delegates have until Feb. 29 to complete the job of redrafting four key sections of the Constitution: the judiciary, legislative apportionment, local government and taxation and state finance.

The convention's recommendations then will be placed on the April Primary Election ballot.

Here is the schedule for public hearings:

Judiciary — Dec. 27, 9:30 a.m.; Local Government — Dec. 28, 9:30 a.m.; Legislative Apportionment — Dec 29, 9:30 a.m.; and Taxation and State Finance — Dec. 29, 1:30 p.m.

All of the hearings will be held in the State Finance Building.

Runway Lengthened

NEW DELHI (AP) — The main runway at Palam International Airport is being lengthened by 2,000 feet to 12,500 feet because of New Delhi's extremely hot summer days.

Aviation officials said the present runway is sometimes not long enough for safe landing and takeoff of large jetliners on days when the temperature is well over 100 degrees and an airplane's power is reduced.

The next meeting will be Jan. 18 at the Ohio Valley Gas Co. annex, with Atty. Joseph W. Cooper the speaker.

Probe Proposed In Pennsylvania After Span Falls

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The tragic collapse of a bridge on the Ohio River last week has prompted a Pennsylvania legislator to call for a probe of the condition of bridges in the state. State Rep. Robert A. Johnson, D-Northeast Phila., a member of the House Highways Committee, said many bridges in the state are as old as the one which collapsed at Point Pleasant, W. Va., where dead are still being sought in the river's icy waters.

"I have no evidence to the effect that any particular bridges are inadequate," Johnson said Sunday night. "But that shocking news of last week reminded me forcibly that many of our Pennsylvania bridges were also built 40 or 50 years ago and designed for loads anticipated at that time."

He said he hoped to introduce a resolution, possibly Tuesday, "calling for re-evaluation of the Pennsylvania arterial bridges."

"I expect quite a few delegates to put their names on to the proposal," he said.

Quiles said his proposal does not have the support of the Pennsylvania Catholic Conference which is pressing the legislature for immediate state aid.

The convention, meanwhile, is expected to work four days this week and then take a holiday break until Jan. 2. However, the four major standing committees plan to hold public hearings during the recess.

Jan. 5 is the deadline for delegates to introduce proposals from the floor.

Committees have until Feb. 2 to report back to the floor whether they are for or against a proposal.

Delegates have until Feb. 29 to complete the job of redrafting four key sections of the Constitution: the judiciary, legislative apportionment, local government and taxation and state finance.

The convention's recommendations then will be placed on the April Primary Election ballot.

Here is the schedule for public hearings:

Judiciary — Dec. 27, 9:30 a.m.; Local Government — Dec. 28, 9:30 a.m.; Legislative Apportionment — Dec 29, 9:30 a.m.; and Taxation and State Finance — Dec. 29, 1:30 p.m.

All of the hearings will be held in the State Finance Building.

Runway Lengthened

NEW DELHI (AP) — The main runway at Palam International Airport is being lengthened by 2,000 feet to 12,500 feet because of New Delhi's extremely hot summer days.

Aviation officials said the present runway is sometimes not long enough for safe landing and takeoff of large jetliners on days when the temperature is well over 100 degrees and an airplane's power is reduced.

Probe Proposed In Pennsylvania After Span Falls

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The tragic collapse of a bridge on the Ohio River last week has prompted a Pennsylvania legislator to call for a probe of the condition of bridges in the state. State Rep. Robert A. Johnson, D-Northeast Phila., a member of the House Highways Committee, said many bridges in the state are as old as the one which collapsed at Point Pleasant, W. Va., where dead are still being sought in the river's icy waters.

"I have no evidence to the effect that any particular bridges are inadequate," Johnson said Sunday night. "But that shocking news of last week reminded me forcibly that many of our Pennsylvania bridges were also built 40 or 50 years ago and designed for loads anticipated at that time."

He said he hoped to introduce a resolution, possibly Tuesday, "calling for re-evaluation of the Pennsylvania arterial bridges."

In 1869, the American Woman's Suffrage Association was formed in Cleveland, Ohio.

Riot-Torn Slums Likened To Vietnam War Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., a member of the President's Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders, says Congress will have to spend a lot of money to bring relief to America's riot-torn slums, likening the problem to the Vietnam war.

Brooke—the Senate's only Negro member—said the Vietnam war costs $2.5 billion or more a month and added: "But this is also a war in the United States, it is an important war, and this war must be won as well and I think we are going to have to spend the money necessary in order to win that war."

Another member of the civil disorders commission, Sen. Fred R. Harris, R-Okla., said "it would be terribly wrong to be surprised again next summer as we have been in every summer past" if riots break out. He said the social conditions causing the riots in the past have not been changed.

"We have got to learn from experience a lot better than we have in the past," Harris said.

Brooke and Harris commented Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press."

Brooke said the commission will have recommendations for Congress in its final report, due in February, which will include spending, but did not detail them. However, he expressed hope Congress would act in its second session of the 90th Congress, beginning Jan. 15, even though inflation fears and Vietnam spending made the Congress budget-conscious in the first session.

Commenting on Black Power advocates Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown, Brooke said they represent the dissatisfaction of young Negro militants with "the slow process of racial equality that has been going on in this country."

""The thing we should be more concerned with than those who incite riots are the conditions which make people incitable," Brooke said. ""Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown would not be able to find followers if those conditions did not exist."

Harris declined to express specific agreement with a prediction by Prof. Herbert J. Gans of Columbia University that the violent repression of city riots will lead to "expanding guerrilla warfare between the races until the entire country becomes a tinderbox, like South Africa."

Gans made the comment in recent testimony before the civil disorders commission which was released Saturday.

He urged governmental action to deal with "grievances that make the ghetto boil over and that encourage police, the troops and their supporters in the white population to resort to excessive repression in return."

But Gans added a long-range program will be needed to change the relationships between whites and Negroes.

Republicans in the House were reported by one of their leaders to be preparing a civil rights bill for the next session of Congress.

Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, chairman of the House Republican Conference, said the measure will include a "modified" open-housing provision. But he did not detail the GOP plan.

Laird appeared on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

A House Armed Services subcommittee said Sunday legislation is needed to protect federal personnel who are assaulted while trying to quell civil disorders.

The report said troops and other federal officials assigned to antiriot duty are not protected by federal law against assault, injury or death at the hands of.rioters.

It also urged early commitment of adequate forces when trouble breaks out and laid stress on planning and carefully developed command-control systems.

Viet Cong Seen Way Ahead

U.S. Urged To Pressure South Viet On Reforms

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the second time this year, the chairman and ranking Republican on a House subcommittee have urged U.S. officials to pressure the South Vietnamese government to accelerate land distribution and other reforms. They say the Viet Cong is way ahead of Saigon in this respect.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk says the South Vietnamese have pledged to take such action.

Reps. John E. Moss, D-Calif., chairman of the House foreign operations and government information subcommittee; and Ogden R. Reid, R-N.Y., told Rusk in a letter released Saturday night that land reform should begin immediately.

Sources said their letter, which charged the Viet Cong land distribution program has involved five times as much land as that of the government, contained the conclusions of a forthcoming subcommittee report.

"We trust that during the impending period of congressional adjournment," Moss and Reid wrote, "the Department of State will take such action as is necessary to make crystal clear to the government of South Vietnam the imperative nature of its undertaking a true commitment of action with regard to the pressing problems of land reform."

Rusk replied to the letter by saying the State Department already is looking toward further action by the Saigon government regarding land matters. He said this includes "the whole broader field of agricultural development and reform."

Rusk said South Vietnam's newly elected government has made clear it plans further action on land distribution and reform. He referred to Prime Minister Nguyen Loc's statement pledging the government would distribute public lands to peasants, re-establish 500,000 expired land leases and issue ownership certificates to 110,500 peasants who have bought expropriated rice fields.

On Aug. 28, Moss and Reid wrote Rusk, when the subcommittee's previous reports were issued, that "the American people have the right to expect either prompt and meaningful substantive action by the government of Vietnam to deal effectively with the problem we have detailed or a searching reassessment of the United States' position."

Reid said in a weekend interview that one major problem is the attitude of both North Vietnam and South Vietnam toward the U.S. commitment.

"I think that our government is not always taken seriously in Hanoi and is taken for granted in Saigon," he said. Reid added that officials in Saigon incorrectly tend to regard the U.S. commitment in Vietnam as an "indefinite blank check."

Over-all, he continued, "the pace and the scope of social and economic reform is far too limited."

The letter from Moss and Reid listed these conclusions:

1. Distribution of land was at a virtual standstill between 1962 and 1967.

2. "The present maximum retention limit of 247 acres may well be excessive. A retention limit of seven to 10 acres would appear to be more equitable."

3. Only 667,000 of 2.47 million acres have been distributed to 128,000 families since 1954, including 51,800 acres to 12,000 families this year.

4. "The Viet Cong during this period have instituted their own land reform program—reportedly distributing some five times the amount of land distributed by the government—and this program has not been effectively countered."

Romney And Aides Borrow Funds To Eat

MOSCOW (AP) — Gov. George Romney and his three traveling companions had to borrow money to eat Saturday night, then had to borrow again today to repay their benefactor.

Romney and his aides took an overnight train from Warsaw, Poland, to Moscow thinking they could use U.S. dollars to buy food en route. But after they crossed the Soviet border they found this wasn't correct and there was no way to buy rubles.

Another traveler named Jerry, who was a Pole or a Russian, paid for their dinner. On their arrival this morning, Romney borrowed 25 rubles—$27.78—from a U.S. Embassy man. Jerry insisted 10 rubles was enough but finally took 25.

Viet Cong Seen Way Ahead

U.S. Urged To Pressure South Viet On Reforms

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the second time this year, the chairman and ranking Republican on a House subcommittee have urged U.S. officials to pressure the South Vietnamese government to accelerate land distribution and other reforms. They say the Viet Cong is way ahead of Saigon in this respect.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk says the South Vietnamese have pledged to take such action.

Reps. John E. Moss, D-Calif., chairman of the House foreign operations and government information subcommittee; and Ogden R. Reid, R-N.Y., told Rusk in a letter released Saturday night that land reform should begin immediately.

Sources said their letter, which charged the Viet Cong land distribution program has involved five times as much land as that of the government, contained the conclusions of a forthcoming subcommittee report.

"We trust that during the impending period of congressional adjournment," Moss and Reid wrote, "the Department of State will take such action as is necessary to make crystal clear to the government of South Vietnam the imperative nature of its undertaking a true commitment of action with regard to the pressing problems of land reform."

Rusk replied to the letter by saying the State Department already is looking toward further action by the Saigon government regarding land matters. He said this includes "the whole broader field of agricultural development and reform."

Rusk said South Vietnam's newly elected government has made clear it plans further action on land distribution and reform. He referred to Prime Minister Nguyen Loc's statement pledging the government would distribute public lands to peasants, re-establish 500,000 expired land leases and issue ownership certificates to 110,500 peasants who have bought expropriated rice fields.

On Aug. 28, Moss and Reid wrote Rusk, when the subcommittee's previous reports were issued, that "the American people have the right to expect either prompt and meaningful substantive action by the government of Vietnam to deal effectively with the problem we have detailed or a searching reassessment of the United States' position."

Reid said in a weekend interview that one major problem is the attitude of both North Vietnam and South Vietnam toward the U.S. commitment.

"I think that our government is not always taken seriously in Hanoi and is taken for granted in Saigon," he said. Reid added that officials in Saigon incorrectly tend to regard the U.S. commitment in Vietnam as an "indefinite blank check."

Over-all, he continued, "the pace and the scope of social and economic reform is far too limited."

The letter from Moss and Reid listed these conclusions:

1. Distribution of land was at a virtual standstill between 1962 and 1967.

2. "The present maximum retention limit of 247 acres may well be excessive. A retention limit of seven to 10 acres would appear to be more equitable."

3. Only 667,000 of 2.47 million acres have been distributed to 128,000 families since 1954, including 51,800 acres to 12,000 families this year.

4. "The Viet Cong during this period have instituted their own land reform program—reportedly distributing some five times the amount of land distributed by the government—and this program has not been effectively countered."

Economic Probe Eyed In Collapse Of Span

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va. (AP)—The U.S. Small Business Administration has been asked to look into the economic impact the U.S. 35 bridge calamity of Friday has had on this community.

City Councilman Jack Fowler said in a special council meeting Sunday that retail sales were off 65 per cent Saturday. It was to have been the town's biggest Christmas shopping day of hte season.

During the meeting council decided to ask Gov. Hulett Smith to seek federal economic assistance from the President.

Besides the loss in Christmas shopping business, Fowler declared the collapse of the bridge across the Ohio River has caused a serious drop in service station and restaurant business.

North Koreans Fire On U.S. Army Plane

SEOUL (AP) — A U.S. Army light plane on a routine flight was fired on Saturday afternoon by North Korean ground forces on the western front but escaped without damage, military sources said today.

Communist antiaircraft guns fired about 50 rounds toward the liaison plane, but the aircraft returned safely to its base, the sources said.

It was not known whether the plane strayed over the demilitarized zone or North Korea.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Machine Does Not Get Bored

Should the family trading stamps be spent for an exercycle A homemaker is quite willing to use eight books of stamps for this mechanical device, provided such exercise is guaranteed to streamline her hips and thighs. Her husband takes a dim view of the idea and claims she can get the same effect by walking around the block a few times daily. They have asked for my opinion.

Ida Jean Kain

Get the exercycle, and both of you ride it regularly. Every day new facts are brought to light that decry our lack of exercise, especially as this lack involves our number one killer, heart disease. In addition to slimming hips and thighs, riding a stationary bike stimulates the circulation and provides excellent general exercise. Using a mechanical device is a way of getting exercise without having to work too hard for it. The machine doesn't get bored, executes the movements perfectly and affords excellent toning exercise.

THE ABOVE is not meant to downgrade walking as a daily constitutional. As with any exercise, the important thing is to get the habit. A homemaker who has found walking a lifesaver, wries:

"It was doctor's order that I walk two miles every day. I had been ill and this daily walk was to help me get back my strength. I can't begin to enumerate the rewards of walking This has now become a habit with me. You name any kind of weather and I've walked in it. I leave after breakfast, for that is the best time of day to walk. I started walking in January 1966, and I have walked more than a thousand miles. . . and loved every mile of it," she claims.

A READER asks what easy exercise can be taken to counteract threatened swayback.

A simple isometric exercise is to contract strongly with the abdominals, "pinch" with the buttock muscles and press the small of the back against a hard surface.

This can be taken from a prone position, lying on back, knees flexed, soles of feet flat. Pull up and in strongly, contract with buttock muscles and press down to flatten small of back. To apply the isometric principle, hold the contraction for a slow count of six. Repeat routine five times.

This same routine can be taken from a standing position. Stand against a wall, feet 4 inches from wall, back against wall. Pull up and in and flatten small of back to wall. Hold to a slow count of six. This is part of William's Flexion Exercises for back strengthening.

First Lady Writes 'Thank You' Note

QUINCY, Ill. (AP) — A "thank you" note from Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson for the dinner she was served aboard the towboat J. W. Hershey during Lady Bird's Midwestern tour was received by the owner of the canteen service.

Robert Mays, the owner, said the letter stated:

"I heard such wonderful things about your menus on the J. W. Hershey that I thought I would write and tell you about it. To a person, everyone glowed with delight over your splendid food and service, including me. Thank you for adding so much to our day."

She added in a handwrittin postscript:

"The catfish was absolutely delicious. I only wish I'd had no dinner or breakfast before so I could have been starved enough to do justice to everything."

Electronic System Detects Unauthorized

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. (AP) — Electronic security equipment that detect unauthorized persons entering or leaving restricted areas will be installed at a federal prison for the first time.

Atest system is being installed at the Federal Correction Institution at Lompoc, Calif.

The system, put in by the Western Division of Sylvania Electronic Systems, is called a balanced transmission line. It resembles a fence of horizontal metal pipes inserted through vertical wooden posts.

Electrical currents within the pipes unite to create a balanced electromagnetic field several feet wide. An approaching person disturbs the field, causing the system to set off an alarm. Only the presence of bodies weighing more than 40 pounds that approach from either side are detected.

Against Polygamy

LUCKNOW, India (AP) — Scrapping of Indian law which permits polygamy among Moslems has been demanded by the National Federation of Indian Women. The women adopted a resolution noting "with regret" that despite equal status guaranteed women under the Indian constitution they are still tied to social evils.

SANTA and the PIGWIDGEN

By Lucrece Beale

Synopsis: Claus finds the key to open the door. Beyond the wall are bands of rollicking pygmies and flying reindeer. When the pygmies catch the deer, Tweedleknees tries to save them.

No matter how much was eaten, the pot stayed full.

CHAPTER 13

The pygmies stared at Patrick Tweedleknees.

"Who are you? What are you doing here?" they demanded.

The elf glared back but he had never been so scared. He could not imagine how he had found the courage to face the fierce pygmies.

He saw the reindeer flying overhead. They rose and dipped, round and round, like horses on a merry-go-round.

"You said you were going to have reindeer meat for supper," growled Tweedleknees.

"And why not?"

'You ought to be ashamed!" exploded the elf.

THE PYGMIES burst into laughter, "Very well! We'll have elf meat instead!"

They pounced on Tweedleknees. He twisted and writhed and bit and clawed and wormed out of their hands. He snatched up a sword and slashed off the head of the nearest pygmy.

The pygmy picked up his head and put it back on his neck. "You are a wild one!" he said admiringly. "We'll take you to our king."

"And who is your king?" asked someone. It was Claus. Unseen he had come into their midst.

"The Pigwidgen," said the pygmy. "The most powerful creature on earth."

Claus' knees shook. He wondered how he could conquer creatures who could not even lose their heads.

He tried to speak but before he could find his voice Patrick Tweedleknees said grandly, "Claus is more powerful than your old king!"

"Oh ho!" shouted the pygmies. "We shall see!"

—:—

THEY SEIZED Claus and Tweedleknees and carried them off to the castle. "We will eat while we wait for the king," they announced.

Tweedleknees wondered if they meant to have him for dinner but the pygmies bent over a tiny pot of stew. They filled their bowls and ate greedily. The pot was so small Claus could not understand how it could feed so many.

He leaned over the pot. To his surprise he saw it was as full as it had been at the start. The pygmies had seconds and thirds and fourths and all the time the pot stayed full.

"Does the pot never empty?" asked Claus.

'Never," boasted a pygmy. "If you are so powerful surely you have such a pot, too."

Claus shook his head and Tweedleknees exclaimed, "He could have if he wanted but it so happens he does not care for stew."

"What then does the great Claus like?" asked the pygmies with interest.

Claus turned on Tweedleknees. "Say no more!" he begged, for he knew not what awful boast the elf might make.

But Tweedleknees would not be quiet. "He likes roast pig!" he blurted. "And he can eat more than you or your old Pigwidgen can any time of day!"

At that moment the castle door slammed and the Pigwidgen himself entered the hall.

Bill OK's Ohio Role In Bus Reciprocity

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Johnson has signed a bill to give consent of congress to Ohio to become a party to an agreement relating to bus taxation probation and reciprocity.

Under the agreement, the the states agree to probate bus registration fees so that an owner of a fleet may register the buses in any compacting state by paying certain proportionate registration fees.

The Ohio legislature has enacted legislation entering into the agreement.

Make $4.50 A Week

PATNA, India (AP) — Bihar state has 467 of India's 788 working coal mines, employing more than 200,000 persons daily, the government's chief inspector of mines reported. The report says Bihar's coal workers earn a "fairly high" salary in comparison with other Indian workers. They average 33 rupees ($4.50) per week.

'Haysmaker' Aimed At Romney, Percy

WASHINGTON (AP)—"There are some days you've got to feel sorry for the State Department's passport division," Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, told the House Friday, "and this is one of them."

"There's the governor of Michigan in England where there's a terrific outbreak of hoof-and-mouth disease," Hayes said of Gov. George Romney, "And you know he's just got to be a carrier."

Of Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., Hays said, "Then they've got a member of the other body (the Senate) in Vietnam pointing his pistol one way while looking the other way into the camera."

Resort Planned

NEW DELHI (AP) — Kovalam sea beach, eight miles from Trivandrum in the southwestern state of Kerala, is to become India's first planned seaside resort. The government is building a 100-bed air-conditioned hotel, cottages and recreational facilities.

Former GIs Sought To Fill Police Ranks

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Kentucky State Police is turning to the ranks of returning military servicemen in an attempt to bring its force up to full strength.

Police headquarters gets the names and records of men being discharged from the service, and then contacts those who seem to meet physical and educational requirements for troopers.

The force has been unable to find enough recruits to increase its trooper strength by 50 a year, as authorized by the 1966 legislature.

Some jolly old advice:

Here's how to make next weekend's Christmas calls go dashing through the phone. Get your out-of-town numbers now, in advance, and plan to dial your calls. To get your number, just dial long distance information in the distant city. There's no charge. (And it's as easy as "Ho, Ho, Ho.") Dial 1. Dial the city's area code if it's different from your own. (Area codes are listed in your phone book.) Next, dial 555-1212, the universal long distance information number. Then jot down your out-of-town numbers near your phone, so you can dial right through any time during the three big Christmas calling days this year. That's right; this year you get three bargain calling days —Saturday, Sunday and Christmas Day. So there's no need to wait for evening. Low weekend rates are in effect all three days long!

SANTA and the PIGWIDGEN

By Lucrece Beale

Synopsis: Claus finds the key to open the door. Beyond the wall are bands of rollicking pygmies and flying reindeer. When the pygmies catch the deer, Tweedleknees tries to save them.

CHAPTER 13

The pygmies stared at Patrick Tweedleknees.

"Who are you? What are you doing here?" they demanded.

The elf glared back but he had never been so scared. He could not imagine how he had found the courage to face the fierce pygmies.

He saw the reindeer flying overhead. They rose and dipped, round and round, like horses on a merry-go-round.

"You said you were going to have reindeer meat for supper," growled Tweedleknees.

"And why not?"

'You ought to be ashamed!" exploded the elf.

THE PYGMIES burst into laughter, "Very well! We'll have elf meat instead!"

They pounced on Tweedleknees. He twisted and writhed and bit and clawed and wormed out of their hands. He snatched up a sword and slashed off the head of the nearest pygmy.

The pygmy picked up his head and put it back on his neck. "You are a wild one!" he said admiringly. "We'll take you to our king."

"And who is your king?" asked someone. It was Claus. Unseen he had come into their midst.

"The Pigwidgen," said the pygmy. "The most powerful creature on earth."

Claus' knees shook. He wondered how he could conquer creatures who could not even lose their heads.

He tried to speak but before he could find his voice Patrick Tweedleknees said grandly, "Claus is more powerful than your old king!"

"Oh ho!" shouted the pygmies. "We shall see!"

—:—

THEY SEIZED Claus and Tweedleknees and carried them off to the castle. "We will eat while we wait for the king," they announced.

Tweedleknees wondered if they meant to have him for dinner but the pygmies bent over a tiny pot of stew. They filled their bowls and ate greedily. The pot was so small Claus could not understand how it could feed so many.

He leaned over the pot. To his surprise he saw it was as full as it had been at the start. The pygmies had seconds and thirds and fourths and all the time the pot stayed full.

"Does the pot never empty?" asked Claus.

'Never," boasted a pygmy. "If you are so powerful surely you have such a pot, too."

Claus shook his head and

No matter how much was eaten, the pot stayed full.

Tweedleknees exclaimed, "He could have if he wanted but it so happens he does not care for stew."

"What then does the great Claus like?" asked the pygmies with interest.

Claus turned on Tweedleknees. "Say no more!" he begged, for he knew not what awful boast the elf might make.

But Tweedleknees would not be quiet. "He likes roast pig!" he blurted. "And he can eat more than you or your old Pigwidgen can any time of day!"

At that moment the castle door slammed and the Pigwidgen himself entered the hall.

Bill OK's Ohio Role In Bus Reciprocity

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Johnson has signed a bill to give consent of congress to Ohio to become a party to an agreement relating to bus taxation probation and reciprocity.

Make $4.50 A Week

PATNA, India (AP) — Bihar state has 467 of India's 788 working coal mines, employing more than 200,000 persons daily, the government's chief inspector of mines reported. The report says Bihar's coal workers earn a "fairly high" salary in comparison with other Indian workers. They average 33 rupees ($4.50) per week.

'Haysmaker' Aimed At Romney, Percy

WASHINGTON (AP)—"There are some days you've got to feel sorry for the State Department's passport division," Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, told the House Friday, "and this is one of them."

"There's the governor of Michigan in England where there's a terrific outbreak of hoof-and-mouth disease," Hayes said of Gov. George Romney, "And you know he's just got to be a carrier."

Of Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., Hays said, "Then they've got a member of the other body (the Senate) in Vietnam pointing his pistol one way while looking the other way into the camera."

Resort Planned

NEW DELHI (AP) — Kovalam sea beach, eight miles from Trivandrum in the southwestern state of Kerala, is to become India's first planned seaside resort. The government is building a 100-bed air-conditioned hotel, cottages and recreational facilities.

Former GIs Sought To Fill Police Ranks

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Kentucky State Police is turning to the ranks of returning military servicemen in an attempt to bring its force up to full strength.

Police headquarters gets the names and records of men being discharged from the service, and then contacts those who seem to meet physical and educational requirements for troopers.

The force has been unable to find enough recruits to increase its trooper strength by 50 a year, as authorized by the 1966 legislature.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm an 18-year-old girl who is away at college. This is my freshman year.

Guess what I received this morning from my mother. Today is my birthday and I knew she would not forget. When I opened the box I almost keeled over. Birth control pills!

I'm not only shocked but deeply hurt. What does my mother think I'm doing here, anyway? I have no use for these pills and, furthermore, I consider this gift a vote of no confidence.

Attached to the bottle was a note which read: "You may not need these, but here they are just in case."

What do you think of a mother who would send her daughter such a gift? Please give me your opinion, because I'm awfully upset. My first inclination was to send them back. Should I? — CLASS OF'71.

-:-

Dear Class: Yes. Tell your mother you have no use for the pills and you're sorry she wasted her money.

As for what I think of a mother who'd send her 18-year-old daughter such a gift — I'll say it in two words: Very little.

The Lens Wins

Dear Ann: Why don't you quit kidding the public? I'm sick and tired of you newspaper columnists who insist on using pictures that are 20 years old. I happen to know that you have three grandchildren. So either come clean and let us see what you really look like or drop that mug shot altogether. — NEW YORK POST READER.

-:-

Dear N.Y.: The picture that runs with my column was taken six months ago. I hope your retouch artist did not lift my sagging chin or remove the lines in my face. They are my credentials for living and I have earned them.

Soused Spouse

Dear Ann: How do other wives deal with this problem? I can't be alone in this.

My husband and I go to a party — either at a club or the home of friends or relatives. George says hello to everyone, heads for the liquor and belts down four martinis.

He becomes loud, raucous and sometimes obscene — telling a couple off-color jokes. Then suddenly he announces he's going into the other room because "it's too hot in here."

He then disappears and after awhile a friend goes to check on him. The report is that good old George is asleep on the bed or couch or floor.

He refuses to eat before we leave the house because it "takes the edge off" and he doesn't want to "miss anything." Consequently, he misses out on everything.

Occasionally one or two of the men in our social group gets tanked on New Year's Eve, but nobody we know gets dead drunk every time he goes to a party. What do you have to say about this? — ACCOMPANIED BUT ALONE.

Dear A: Your husband's desire to get smashed as quickly as possible indicated he is uncomfortable with people and wishes to escape.

As for what you can do about it, the answer is — not a pea-pickin' thing. Nobody ever solved a booze problem for a second party. Only when your husband realizes he has a problem can something be done about it. So, my dear, endure what you cannot cure.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ohio To Follow U.S. Policy In Any Draft Card Violations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Selective Service officials say local draft boards have been instructed to follow national policy in cases of suspected draft card violators.

Deputy director of the Ohio Selective Service headquarters, Col. William L. Klare, said policy calls for prompt investigations and prosecution.

He said many Ohio protestors have received much publicity while deceiving their own followers.

An Antioch College professor recently led protestors in anti-war, anti-draft campaigns, and boldly turned in his draft card, said Klare.

"When we investigated, we learned the first draft card was dated 1952 and the other 1955. There is no law violation in turning in an outdated draft card."

In a recent Cincinnati protest, 52 draft cards were turned in. Of these 52 cards, Klare said, only nine were valid.

In Cleveland an 18-year-old Westlake youth, John E. Knecht, has been charged in U.S. District Court with possession of a forged draft card.

Assistant U. S. Attorney James L. Oakar said several draft cards were found in Knecht's possession after a high-speed chase through western suburbs last month.

Knecht was fined $151 in Brook Park Mayor's Court Tuesday for resisting arrest, reckless operation and possessing fictitious license plates.

He was arraigned Thursday on the forged draft card charge.

Blaw - Knox manufactures heavy machinery and equipment. White manufactures machinery and equipment, including machine tools.

Spicy Case On Hands

TIRUCHIRAPPALLI, India (AP) — Two customs officers had a spicy case on their hands. The officers, on a motorcycle, gave chase to a car which sped through a checkpost near this south Indian city. The driver finally abandoned his car, dived into a river and escaped. The officers found in the car five bags of cloves, presumbly smuggled into India from Ceylon.

Some day I must make a decision concerning a mortuary or funeral home. How do I go about it?

Our Answer:
There are several ways. You might ask your clergyman, your attorney or your friends. Or, you might look for the member of National Selected Morticians. Still another way is to get answers to these questions — (1) Do they operate a complete funeral establishment? (2) Are their prices marked in plain figures? (3) Do they stand well in the community? # Home Appliance Utopia In Sight?

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Homemakers are giant steps closer to home appliance Utopia.

The silver lining that glimmers on the horizon is threaded with gold — the tiny strands that go into the "integrated circuits" that are scheduled to revolutionize major home appliances.

For one thing, you can kiss the appliance service boys goodbye. They won't be necessary when the "ICs," integrated circuits, which begin to police appliances — within the next three years, says F. Rydor Amthor, product planning director, Consumer Group, Westinghouse.

It isn't that people don't like servicemen — it's the fuss, expense and inconvenience of it all.

—:—

BUT NOW the "ICs" will take over, tidying the mysterious innards of washing machines, television sets and other appliances so that complaints can be registered on a trouble board.

ICs are already performing such feats in laboratories, and have been used in space craft programs.

They will go to the moon in a camera and to sea in a sonar submarine — detection system. They are an outgrowth of an Air Force and Westinghouse venture in molecular electronics that was begun in 1958. Now larger chunks of the output will be released to industry and consumer.

"When a television set requires servicing, a light will go on or off indicating which circuit board is at fault. It can be removed, taken to a store and exchanged for a new one," Amthor explains.

For example, the present mechanical control on a clothes washer out of warranty costs about $35 to replace because of its complexity, he points out.

"But if we could use a simple timer, inserting an integrated circuit board for the time of the cycle we want, we could make the unit dependable and flexible."

—:—

WASHING maching service problems have decreased in recent years so although the washing machine will be simpler to integrate than television sets, the video unit will get priority because of its universal acceptance.

For example, there are television sets in some homes that do not have plumbing.

Integrated circuits will be less expensive than, say, the knobs and speaker of a television set.

"That's what really makes this an evolution, "explains Amthor, "the ability to combine complex circuits in a small area and do it cheaply. This can be done either with a chip (silicon about the size of a letter o) or hybrids, a combination of chips and thick and thin film circuitry. . . ."

We have come a long way in the progression from radio's vacuum tube, the first step in controlling the flow of electronics in electrical circuits.

There are the transistors and solid state devices such as one finds in many radios, phonographs, small and large appliances. The new integrated circuits combine advantages of transistors — long life and low cost — with compactness, an IC with its transistors, resistors, capacitors, diodes and connecting wires can go into a space that is smaller than that required by a single transistor.

—:—

IT'S A HAPPY thought that we will never run out of the silicons — rocks and sand from beaches.

But will women get these spaceage appliances when they are marketed?

For example, women seldom buy dishwashers, points out Amthor. They have a sort of guilt feeling about the whole thing. But when they move into a home that has all major appliances and they are asked which is the last they would give up, it is the dishwasher.

So they are dependent on the builder's choice of appliances. Right now, there are controls in transistor and solid state applications in major appliances that minimize repair problems but "70 per cent of electrical major appliances are bought by builders, who choose minimum-cost items," points out Amthor.

This may even be the situation when these spectacular space - age appliances are marketed.

And as homemakers know, appliances get costly when they bog down with use and require constant servicing.

Quarry Tile Can Be Used Outside Home

Question: We just moved into a house that has reddish squares on the kitchen floor. I have been told that this is quarry tile, which I had never heard of before.

We like it very much and are thinking about putting it outside on the patio, which is located near the kitchen. However, we live in an area where it gets very hot in the summer and very cold in the winter. Will this kind of tile stand up under these kind of changing temperatures

Answer: Yes, quarry tile can be used outside the house. Also, you will discover, when you go to buy it, that it comes in a variety of shapes as well as squares. Be sure to tell your dealer that it will be installed outdoors so that he can give you the proper kind of adhesive.

Homework Requires Quiet Place

Architects and builders should plan homes with a new point of view. The moderate priced house available to the average family is out of whack with our times and teen-age population.

These World War II era type dwellings that were stripped of everything but bare necessities must be updated by the do-it-yourselfer or professionally if they are to accommodate grown children.

There is no provision for study or recreation. Something called a family room must suffice. It can't because it doesn't do the job. It is nothing more than a noise trap in most homes —someone watching television while someone else plays piano or tries to read a book.

—:—

YOUNG PEOPLE can't find a quiet place in their homes for study, one reason they roam "to study at Millie's" or to "sleep over at Joan's." Today's educational pressures are greater than ever but young people have less privacy for school work than their grandparents enjoyed.

This was pointed up recently on a visit to a family in a typical six - room ranch style house that had served them through cradle and bunk bed era.

Three teen - agers and two small children were being told, "Do your homework," as distractions in the family room included 10 puppies in a temporary dog pen that took up one-third of the room, four kittens providing laughs and two older dogs.

A basket of wash next to an ironing board completed the scene that would have been delightful as a Norman Rockwell poster but was hardly conducive to concentration.

Parents who moved into such houses as newlyweds accept this sort of thing as the problems of "a growing family." Unless they can afford to pay much more for a new house, they would have pretty much the same setup in one they could afford. The trend is to accept it until the youngsters go off to college or get married.

IF ONE is strapped for funds to build an addition on a house, one should look around for other alternatives.

For example, does the family car need a better house than teenagers enjoy?

Put the car out and turn the garage into a recreation room, a place where young people can unleash their energies with basketball-hoop, table tennis, teenage parties, dances.

The family room could then be turned into a quiet study. If there isn't a family room, corral space from another area, like a large living room. Sometimes merely throwing away junk in an attic and insulating it will provide the answer.

A restful library observed in one house recently had been a sewing room but was like an oasis after all the messy family rooms that one encounters.

The 8-by-10 room is walled by bookshelves to the ceiling. There were two small tables, two comfortable chairs, a large dictionary, a globe of the world, a telephone and a carpeted floor that increased the quiet feeling. The teen-agers who use the room are top students.

Their mother confided that she doesn't miss the sewing room. She moves her portable machine into the room when they are at school.

Another arrangement in such a room could be to have one large table along the wall where young people could spread out with their school books. Or individual tables could be pulled out of enclosed cabinets below bookshelves.

Paint Can Change Kitchen Into A 'Winter Wonderland'

Transform your kitchen into an atmosphere of fun, gaiety and excitement for the Yuletide season — all with a can of paint! The kitchen is the scene for many daily chores all through the year, but now is the perfect time to make it decorative and inviting.

A trip to the paint store for a quality enamel and a minimum amount of work will make your holiday baking and meal serving more of a pleasure for you and your family.

A quality enamel is easily applied, is inexpensive, and will prevent the expensive damage that results from a great amount of cooking and cleaning moisture from seeping through the walls. Your enamel finish can be cleaned frequently without dulling the original bright color and assures complete hiding power and a long lasting finish. Your local reputable paint dealer can recommend an enamel that has these qualifications.

Before dipping your brush into the enamel, a good surface cleansing is a must for successful results. A simple soap and water or detergent scrubbing will remove dirt and grease collected on the walls. Remember to fill any little cracks with a patching compound and sand them smooth. Roughen very glossy areas with fine sandpaper to insure proper adhesion of your enamel

Now, you're ready to begin. Spread the enamel onto the surface with a generously-loaded brush and long smooth strokes. Before refilling your brush, cross-stroke and then, with your brush practically dry, go over it again with long, smooth strokes. If you follow these steps the end result will be a smooth finish that will delight your eyes.

Since the kitchen is such a busy place and the scene for many activities, choose a color that will heighten your spirits starting with that first meal of the day. Choose a color that stimulates you and enhances your personality.

Why not go a step further and make one wall a focal point with a contrasting color. Your kitchen utensils will sparkle against a colorful background.

19-Month High Registered For Steel Production

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steel Magazine estimated raw steel production last week reached the highest level in 19 months—2,745,000 net tons.

The weekly journal of metalworking said the eight - tenths per cent gain from the preceding week continued a general uptrend in ingot output.

The high level of operations and the promise if heavy buying in the first quarter of 1968 has encouraged the scrap market, Steel said. Steel's price composite on No. 1 heavy melting grade scrap went up 33 cents a gross ton last week to $29.83. highest since mid-August of 1966.

December order bookings are 12 to 14 per cent ahead of November for some steelmakers the magazine said. It reported that a midwest producer had twice as many orders in the first six days of this month as in the first week of last month.

"Some of the December activity can be attributed to consumers' efforts to beat a mid-month price hike of $5 a ton on cold rolled sheets," Steel explained.

Patching Should Come Before Applying Paint

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Lucky indeed is the home owner who decides to paint one of the rooms in his house and does not have to do any plaster patching ahead of time.

Of course, he can skip the patching if he wishes. But, if there are any cracks, holes or openings of any kind in the plaster, neglecting them before painting will only result in an amateurish effect when the job is completed.

Better to spend a little extra time in closing the gaps in the wall and be certain, at the very least, of winning the approbation of the lady of the house—or the man of the house, since women do so much interior painting these days.

PLASTER patching material usually comes in the form of a powder which requires mixing with water before using.

When mixed to the consistency of dough, it is applied with a putty knife or similar tool. However, in the case of hairline cracks, the mixture should be a little more watery so that it can be pressed into the tiny openings.

While patching plaster dries fairly quickly, it does not dry as rapidly as plaster of paris, which also comes in powdery form. Some persons make a 50-50 mixture of the two and find it very effective. Nothing or nobody can tell you as much about the proper drying time as the instructions on the container of whatever product you purchase.

Possibly the most important thing about patching is the necessity of wetting down the area to be repaired. Wet the opening thoroughly, then apply the plaster. After the patch has set, wet it down again.

The patch must be covered with a sealer or primer before repainting the entire wall or trying to match the patch with the result of the surface.

WHEN THE opening in the plaster is anything more than a hairline crack, it must be undercut to prevent the patch from falling out when it has dried.

Undercutting involves making the edges of the plaster slant inward, so that the opening is wider at the bottom than at the top. Be sure all loose bits of plaster are removed, then soak the opening with clean water and go ahead with the patching.

When a large gap must be filled, it is sometimes better to do it in two stages. Apply the patching material so that it doesn't quite come to the surface. Let it set completely.

Now apply more plaster, bringing it the tiniest fraction of an inch above the surface. When it is dry, sand it even with the surface and wet it down. Later, apply the primer and, when that is dry, go ahead with the painting.

Yes, it'll take more time than if you went ahead and slapped on the paint. But it's well worth it.

Mothers Ask Aid In Location Of Runaway Dads

A leader of a mothers group seeking stronger laws on providing support payments for youngsters by separated or divorced husbands has written to Rep. Wayne L. Hays asking federal cooperation.

Mrs. Inez Mason of W. 4th St. received an advisory letter from an aide of Ohio Gov. James Rhodes concerning the support problem.

Gerald Gollins, who received Mrs. Mason's letter along with petitions signed by other mothers, wrote, "I agree that it would be helpful if the Department of Health, Education and Welfare would provide assistance in locating fathers through their Social Security numbers."

Collins also wrote, "As you know, the apprehension of a runaway father is within the scope of your local police authorities."

Mrs. Mason said she has written to Rep. Hays, 18th District Congressman, asking his aid in getting the assistance of the HEW.

Cleveland Claims World's Largest Santa

CLEVELAND (AP)— Donald Piskach may be the world's largest Santa Claus.

The 31-year-old 7-foot-2 Cleveland man, weighs 350 pounds, is much in demand this time of the year playing Santa at benefits and civic organization parties.

Most children don't know how to cope with his awesome size, Piskach said. One tot took a second look at him, he added, and then exclaimed "mommy, there's the real Santa Claus. All the rest are his helpers.

Piskach's costume, like most of his clothes, was made to order. His mother made the suit from eight yards of red flannel material. He wears size 22 boots.

Shielded By Rainy Weather

North Vietnam Sets Up Huge New Fuel Depot

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Shielded by rainy-season weather that has hampered U.S. air raids, North Vietnam has assembled a huge new oil depot piled with thousands of fuel drums, U.S. government sources say.

The new fuel dump—apparently a key one in supporting the truck movement of war supplies toward South Vietnam—is said to be only two miles south of Haiphong.

Because it lies so close to a population center, sources said, the oil depot would be attacked only if U.S. pilots could see it clearly and bomb visually. This restriction would preclude radar bombing through overcast.

A month-long period of heavy rains over North Vietnam broke last week and U.S. bombers have been concentrating on knocking out bridges and communication links close to Hanoi and Haiphong as apparent first priority. The rainy season is expected to last several more months, so the good bombing weather may not continue for long.

During the monsoon rains and heavy cloud cover, the North Vietnamese reportedly have repaired most of the bridges, railroads, highways and airfields which were pounded by U.S. bombers and fighter-bombers during intense, wide-ranging raids last summer and early fall.

The new oil depot is reported to be close to a stream which the North Vietnamese have dredged recently so that oil tankers can move out of Haiphong harbor and partway up the river where they discharge their loads of fuel drums into barges.

U.S. intelligence is aware of considerable barge-building activity. It includes the assembling of metal barges which evidently have come into Vietnam in prefabricated sections.

This all coincides with a continuing shift of big amounts of the war supplies and equipment from truck to barge movement, sources said.

Among other targets hit by American bombers in past months, sources said, two trans-shipmentpoints southwest of Haiphong have been rebuilt.

It was reported that fertilizer, once a major commodity entering North Vietnam, no longer is showing up on the docks to any important extent. Instead, foodstuffs represent a growing proportion of the goods and material being unloaded at Haiphong and other ports.

Officials said recently that food shipments are receiving top priority, along with oil products, in unloading at Haiphong. This has suggested a food problem in North Vietnam.

The Communists have been diverting some cargo ships to Hon Gai, North Vietnam's second largest port, about 18 miles northeast of Haiphong.

The United States has never acknowledged any strikes against the harbor facilities at Hon Gai.

In early December, Peking's New China News Agency claimed U.S. warplanes "savagely attacked" a Chinese freighter anchored in Hon Gai, damaging the ship and wounding eight crewmen. The Pentagon declined comment on the claim.

Heart Attack Fatal To Ohio Editor, 69

Memorial services are scheduled at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Lebanon Methodist Church for the publisher, who also was a trustee of the Ohio Historical Society and executive vice president of the Brown Publishing Co.

Survivors include his widow and two sons.

Ohio Soldier Okay After Crash Of Bus

Mothers Ask Aid In Location Of Runaway Dads

A leader of a mothers group seeking stronger laws on providing support payments for youngsters by separated or divorced husbands has written to Rep. Wayne L. Hays asking federal cooperation.

Mrs. Inez Mason of W. 4th St. received an advisory letter from an aide of Ohio Gov. James Rhodes concerning the support problem.

Gerald Gollins, who received Mrs. Mason's letter along with petitions signed by other mothers, wrote, "I agree that it would be helpful if the Department of Health, Education and Welfare would provide assistance in locating fathers through their Social Security numbers."

Collins also wrote, "As you know, the apprehension of a runaway father is within the scope of your local police authorities."

Mrs. Mason said she has written to Rep. Hays, 18th District Congressman, asking his aid in getting the assistance of the HEW.

Cleveland Claims World's Largest Santa

CLEVELAND (AP)— Donald Piskach may be the world's largest Santa Claus.

The 31-year-old 7-foot-2 Cleveland man, weighs 350 pounds, is much in demand this time of the year playing Santa at benefits and civic organization parties.

Most children don't know how to cope with his awesome size, Piskach said. One tot took a second look at him, he added, and then exclaimed "mommy, there's the real Santa Claus. All the rest are his helpers.

Piskach's costume, like most of his clothes, was made to order. His mother made the suit from eight yards of red flannel material. He wears size 22 boots.

Ohio Man Charged In Daughter's Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Wade Suber, 48, was charged Sunday with second-degree murder in the fatal shooting of Winiferd Suber, 16, one of his two teen-aged daughters.

She died in Grant Hospital late Saturday after she and a sister, Wanda, 17, were shot at their mother's home. Mrs. Suber and her husband are divorced. Wanda remained in fair condition.

To Sleep: Perchance to Dream

Shielded By Rainy Weather

North Vietnam Sets Up Huge New Fuel Depot

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Shielded by rainy-season weather that has hampered U.S. air raids, North Vietnam has assembled a huge new oil depot piled with thousands of fuel drums, U.S. government sources say.

The new fuel dump—apparently a key one in supporting the truck movement of war supplies toward South Vietnam—is said to be only two miles south of Haiphong.

Because it lies so close to a population center, sources said, the oil depot would be attacked only if U.S. pilots could see it clearly and bomb visually. This restriction would preclude radar bombing through overcast.

A month-long period of heavy rains over North Vietnam broke last week and U.S. bombers have been concentrating on knocking out bridges and communication links close to Hanoi and Haiphong as apparent first priority. The rainy season is expected to last several more months, so the good bombing weather may not continue for long.

During the monsoon rains and heavy cloud cover, the North Vietnamese reportedly have repaired most of the bridges, railroads, highways and airfields which were pounded by U.S. bombers and fighter-bombers during intense, wide-ranging raids last summer and early fall.

The new oil depot is reported to be close to a stream which the North Vietnamese have dredged recently so that oil tankers can move out of Haiphong harbor and partway up the river where they discharge their loads of fuel drums into barges.

U.S. intelligence is aware of considerable barge-building activity. It includes the assembling of metal barges which evidently have come into Vietnam in prefabricated sections.

This all coincides with a continuing shift of big amounts of the war supplies and equipment from truck to barge movement, sources said.

Among other targets hit by American bombers in past months, sources said, two trans-shipmentpoints southwest of Haiphong have been rebuilt.

It was reported that fertilizer, once a major commodity entering North Vietnam, no longer is showing up on the docks to any important extent. Instead, foodstuffs represent a growing proportion of the goods and material being unloaded at Haiphong and other ports.

Officials said recently that food shipments are receiving top priority, along with oil products, in unloading at Haiphong. This has suggested a food problem in North Vietnam.

The Communists have been diverting some cargo ships to Hon Gai, North Vietnam's second largest port, about 18 miles northeast of Haiphong.

The United States has never acknowledged any strikes against the harbor facilities at Hon Gai.

In early December, Peking's New China News Agency claimed U.S. warplanes "savagely attacked" a Chinese freighter anchored in Hon Gai, damaging the ship and wounding eight crewmen. The Pentagon declined comment on the claim.

Heart Attack Fatal To Ohio Editor, 69

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Gardner Townsley, 69, editor of the Western Star, Ohio's oldest weekly newspaper, died over the weekend.

Townsley, who was with the Star 44 years, suffered a fatal heart attack Saturday night at Dayton's Miami Valley Hospital.

Memorial services are scheduled at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Lebanon Methodist Church for the publisher, who also was a trustee of the Ohio Historical Society and executive vice president of the Brown Publishing Co.

Survivors include his widow and two sons.

Ohio Soldier Okay After Crash Of Bus

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army Pvt. Thomas O. McCoy of Portsmouth, Ohio, was one of several soldiers who remained in good condition late Sunday night as a result of a bus accident.

The chartered bus, carrying military men on Christmas leave, overturned on U.S. 62-180 Saturday, killing three soldiers and injuring several others.

Kentucky Man Dies After Traffic Mishap

CINCINNATI (AP) — Robert Mudman, 33, died here Sunday from injuries he received Dec. 12 when he lost control of his car on Interstate 75 here and slammed into a concrete pillar.

The Petersburg, Ky., man died at General Hospital.

Christmas, as a word, is derived from the Old English "cristes maesse," or "Christ's mass."

Fred Moore's (Piketon, O., native) 45 points against Mareietta in 1957 ranks as the most points ever scored by an Ohio University basketballer in a single game.

Junior Editors Quiz on PLANETS

QUESTION: Who discovered each planet?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The ancient Greeks noticed that, although almost all of the stars remained in the same position in relation to each other, there were a few which moved from one constellation to another. They called them planets, because the word meant wanderers. And they named them after their gods. The sun and moon were also planets to them, but the earth was not a planet because it seemed solidly fixed. They thought of it as the center of the universe. Our list shows that Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn were all known to the ancients. Then came a tremendous revolution in human thought. The Polish astronomer Copernicus realized that the earth was not in the center of things, but was actually one of the planets revolving around the sun. Copernicus did not, of course, discover the earth, but he discovered that the earth was a planet, so it seems fair to list him as discoverer of the planet earth. Notice the immense size of Jupiter and Saturn compared to the other planets. Sir William Herschel found Uranus in March of 1781, having first considered it a comet. Neptune was discovered by a brilliant mathematical calculation. Its gravity had been affecting the orbit of Uranus. In the same way, Pluto was discovered from its effect on Uranus and Neptune.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise; Remember that there is a Christ in Christmas, so please let's spell the word out when writing letters, cards, etc.

"Xmas" is nice and short, I know, but as Christ took the time to do what He did for us, won't you take the time to spell it out? At least when you write the whole word, you will remember what it stands for.

MINISTER.

DEAR HELOISE: Will you tell your housewives that there is absolutely no need to crease the French cuffs on a shirt when they iron it.

The French cuff should be ironed out flat and left that way until time to be worn. Then all it needs is a slight crease with your fingars after it's put on.

By using this method it will keep the soil from grinding into the pressed creases and the shirt will last much longer.

MANUFACTURER.

You just told us, Sir. And thanks. We didn't know.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Do you hate to rearrange your furniture on a deep-pile hook rug because of the ugly pits you then have to look at in the carpet? If this happens, grab a hairpin and get started on your repair project with joy in your heart! Pry the matted areas up with the ends of the hairpin by putting it through a loop and pulling gently. Then work outward from the depression for three or four inches picking away briskly. You will hardly be able to see the mark after a few minutes.

KAY.

DEAR HELOISE: As newlyweds three Christmases ago, we hadn't any Christmas decorations nor an abundance of money to spend on them.

Therefore, we decided to use the Christmas cards we received to dress our tree by hanging them up with the little wire decoration hooks.

As the cards usually accumulate quickly, the tree never really looked skimpy. One box of ball ornaments and a package of icicles finished it off beautifully.

JUDY McGOWEN.

DEAR HELOISE: Will all those who forget to run the dishwasher please stand up? I'm one who waits a while to allow the water heater to recover, then promptly forgets to turn it on.

Now, until the heater is ready, I set the dishwasher detergent in the middle of the kitchen floor so we all have to step around it. . .
